19TH YEAR. NO. 42.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

HON. R. W. TAYLER AT WORK TO GET RIVER IMPROVEMENT

He Calls Upon Postmaster Surles
For Statistics of Local Tonnage.

Showing the Importance to East
Liverpool of Water
Transportation.

NEW LOCK AND DAM HERE

If Present Plans Are Carried Out
Would Be a Matter of Great Importance—Favorable Action By Congress Expected.

Hon. R. W. Tayler, who is diligently at work to secure provision by the present congress for locks and dams for the improvement of the Ohio river, yesterday telegraphed Postmaster W.
H. Surles as follows:

"Wire me today approximate annual tonnage of receipts and shipments of freight at East Liverpool."

The postmaster promptly complied, sending the following telegram:

"Inbound freight, 850,000 tons, including coal. Outbound freight, 275, 000 tons."

These statistics the postmaster was able to supply at once, having gathered much data on the subject when the matter was before congress a year or two ago, and it was only necessary to go to the same sources and bring the figures up to date by giving those for 1901.

The improvement advocated by the government engineers and which congress has shown a disposition to encourage is one which shall make the whole Ohio river from its source to its mouth navigable the year around.
Appropriation for such work has been made in the last few years, not in a lump sum, but on the continuing contract system, a sufficient amount being appropriated to keep the work going each year.

The proposed East-Liverpool dam, provided for in the house bill introduced in January, 1901, which failed to pass at the last session, is known as "movable dam No. 8," and its location is to be just below this city at Walker. For the completion of the lock, including purchase of site, an expenditure not exceeding $250,000 was proposed in the old bill. The total improvement, including lock, dam, etc., completed, is estimated to cost about $800,000.

It can readily be seen that such an expenditure here would vastly benefit the city while the improvement is in progress, to say nothing of the benefits to result to commerce and industry after the work is completed.

Those best posted on river interests are confident of securing from the present congress such legislation as will show appropriate recognition of the needs of the Ohio valley and of a disposition to hasten the completion of the whole great work.

lock's Bill.

MRS. C. S. GOODWIN HAS PASSED AWAY

PROMINENT LADY DEAD AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

She Was Prominent in Church,
Social And Charitable Work Here.

Mrs. Josephine Goodwin, wife of George S. Goodwin, passed away peacefully at 5 o'clock this morning, after a lingering illness. Though her death had been expected for many weeks the sad intelligence came as a shock to a large circle of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Goodwin was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Bunting and was born at Hamilton, W. Va. In early childhood the family went to Wells-ville. There she received her education at a private school conducted by Prof. Lafferty and later she attended Beaver college.

Besides having a liberal education,
Mrs. Goodwin was endowed with an unusually bright intellect and in business affairs had very keen foresight and fine executive ability. She was fond of reading and kept well posted on current events and was an entertaining conversationalist. In her domestic affairs she was exceedingly practical and thorough and took the greatest pride in making her home delightfully attractive to her family and friends. As a hostess she was noted for her hospitality.

When 13 years of age she joined the Presbyterian church of Wellsville.
After coming to this city she identified herself with the First Presbyterian church and was an active and efficient worker of the missionary society.

One of the strongest traits of her character was her thoughtfulness of others, particularly the aged and the afflicted. She was embodiment of kindness. She will be missed and mourned by a large number, to whom in a quiet and unostentatious way, she had been a benefactor, and her many kind deeds will be gratefully remembered. In disposition she was cheerful, and her genial nature won for her a host of friends, to whom she was always loyal. Her last illness was borne with Christian fortitude and she clearly expressed herself as being ready for the transition.

In the midst of a happy home life her early taking away is mourned not only by a devoted husband, her son and daughter, four brothers and four sisters, but a large circle of friends who regret her demise as a personal loss. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the residence Fifth and Jackson. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. G. Jordan.
The interment will be at Riverview cemetery.

FROM GERMANY

Mayor Davidson Receives a Postal Card Which Is a Curiosity.

Mayor Davidson is in possession of a postal card from Germany which is a curiosity. It was addressed to the mayor, and is signed by only the initials of the writer—J. S. L. A lithograph picture of two laughing Germans appear on the card, covering the one side almost completely.

It is evident the writer has been before Mayor Davidson, as in small letters, underneath the picture, is written: "A Saturday night's drunk $5 and costs."

It pays to advertise in a live newspaper. The News Review is alive,

YOUNG HUSBAND JAILED BY WIFE

Elmer Mercer Taken to Salem to Answer to the Charge of Non-Support.

ANOTHER CHARGE IS MADE

Mrs. Mercer Alleges That He Has
Been Living Here With Another Woman—The Husband Denies His Guilt And Makes Charges Also.

Marshal Charles Johnson, of Salem, arrived in this city this morning with a warrant for Elmer Mercer, who was arrested at his home on Calcutta road last evening by Officers Thompson and Dawson.

A telephone message was received from the Salem official yesterday by Chief Thompson, stating that Mercer's wife, who is at present in Salem, had filed an affidavit against him charging non-support of a minor child. The officers here were requested to apprehend him.

The allegation is made by Mrs. Mercer that her husband has been living here with another woman. He denies the charge and further claims he is not guilty of the charge of non-support. The couple have not been living together for some time and since their separation their child has been in charge of Mercer's sister.

It is alleged by the husband that his wife came here a few days ago and took the child to Salem. He says she caused his arrest simply for spite, work. He will likely be given a trial tomorrow.

LOOKING AFTER LEASES

C. P. ROTHWELL NOW CONTROLS
3,500 ACRES OF COAL.

Unfavorable Weather Has Delayed
the Starting of Test
Drills.

C. P. Rothwell, an extensive coal operator of East Palestine, arrived in Chester this morning and spent the day looking after the leases recently secured by him in this territory.

Mr. Rothwell now controls 3,500 acres of coal land just south of Chester, and it will be thoroughly developed within the next few months. Mr.
Rothwell was questioned with reference to his intentions and said:

"Had the weather been at all favorable we would have had our drills at work long ago making tests. The apparatus has been made ready for immediate use, however, and just as soon as the weather will permit the work will be started."

Appealed to Common Pleas.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—
Joseph S. Faloon, of Hanoverton, received a judgment in Justice Winter's court in that town for $75, claimed as due for rental for a saloon building occupied by George Sinclair and Charles Deer. The defendants have appealed to common pleas court.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—
A marriage license has been issued to George S. Allison and Lizzie Armon, Salem.

CITIZEN'S TICKET FOR WELLSVILLE

Nominations Made and a Platform
Adopted at a Public Meeting.

INDORSEMENT IS GIVEN

To Several Candidates Whose Names Appear Upon the Republican Ticket—Plea Made in Favor of No Politics at Municipal Elections.

A ticket, to be known as a Citizens' ticket, was nominated by an assemblage of 49 voters in the Wellsville Methodist Protestant church last evening. In consequence there will be more "scratching" at the spring election than for many years.

Several of the strongest Republican nominees were endorsed and the man placed at the head of the ticket is conceded to be a very strong candidate. He is a union man, works in a local pottery and is a prominent church member. With these acquisitions he will undoubtedly poll a good vote, as the Republican candidate and the probable Democratic candidate are being opposed by a large number, owing to their alleged affiliation for organizations other than the pottery and churches.

Those present at the last evening's meeting constituted some of the most prominent men of the city among whom were: Ellis Pease, J.
C. Russell, Charles Woodruff, W. E.
Davis, Isaac Secrist, F. M. Halley, Gillis Moore, D. A. Tarr, William Donaldson, J. B. Goff, J. M. Russell, John Wilson, Captain Todd, H. J. C. Lewis,
Hugh Andrews, Rev. W. M. Glasgow,
Rev. C. L. V. McKee, A. C. Van Dyke,
William Wooster, A. B. Apple, Albert
Cattlet, C. A. Peterson, C. McCartney,
J. J. Dowling, W. J. Culp, J. L. Jurken, Aaron Eaton, Dr. McConnell, W.
H. Daughaday and Charles Snediker.

The organization was made permanent upon motion and F. M. Halley was elected chair man and A. C. Van Dyke, secretary.

A committee composed of Rev. C. L.
V. McKee, Rev. J. B. Goff and Frank Groves was appointed to prepare a platform for the adoption of the organization. It follows:

"We, a convention of citizens of Wellsville, believe that a city government is for the safety, peace and prosperity of the citizens and for the preservation and improvement of their morals and not for the purpose of supplying a few persons with honorable and lucrative positions, much less for the protection of the vicious.
We believe that existing laws should be enforced in their evident letter and spirit until they are repealed without regard to class or distinction, and that a sworn officer of the law who has failed to do so, to the best of his ability, is a perjurer.

"We believe that the officers of the city are not matters of party politics, but of business in which every citizen, rich or poor, landlord or tenant, is financially concerned and that honesty, sobriety and business ability are essential in public as well as private affairs.

"We believe in safe and clean streets, sanitary conditions of sewerage, an abundance of pure water and in plenty of steady light, and that

ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP MOVES TO SECURE BETTER ROADS

these should be provided at a small cost. We believe that not only the good name of our city and the safety of ourselves and children, but that the business interests of our city demand the suppression of vice in whatever form by moral, capable and vigilant officers and the speedy punishment of the evildoer."

Upon this platform the following ticket was nominated:

For mayor—W. E. Davis.

For solicitor—Charles Boyd, Republican candidate, endorsed.

For treasurer—T. R. Andrews, indorsed.

For street commissioner—H. A.
Herbert, indorsed.

UPSET IN THE SNOW

SLEIGHING PARTY MET WITH A
MISHAP ON THE ROAD.

A Girl Fainted And Men Were Hurt,
But None Very Seriously.

Seven couples of young people met with a mishap last night. They had a very pleasant sledding party to the home of Miss Mary Lewis, north of Cannon's Mill. The evening was very pleasantly spent. On the return trip the merry party had reached a point near the home of James Crawford, when the sled struck a stone and overturned.

The entire party was thrown out and all were more or less injured.
One young lady fainted and several of the men were hurt. A number of bloody noses resulted from their owners coming in contact with other people's heads. No one was seriously hurt.

DER'S ANNIVERSARY.

K. of P. lodges of this city was held last evening, about 200 members and their friends being present. During the early part of the evening the annual parade of the Uniform Rank took singing, recitations and an address by T. C. Neal, upon the accomplishments of the order.

Those who took part in the entertainment were Prof. Laughlin, Prof.
Swingswood, Miss Margaret Harrison,
Miss Margaret King and Miss Laura Geon. Dancing was also indulged in, after which an elaborate luncheon was served.

BANK CLERKS' BOWLING

Interesting Contest Between First National and Citizens'
National Teams.

The clerks of the First National and Citizens' National bank have organized bowling teams and yesterday they played two exciting games on the Craig-Carnahan alleys. The First National team won, but by a correspondingly small margin. The score:
First National—Hall, 129, 137;
Chambers, 129, 111; Firth, 159, 145;
Dickey, 90, 72.
Citizens' National—Blythe, 66, 82;
Stewart, 100, 121; Dunlap, 114, 124;
Blythe, Jr., 84, 138.

NOT YET SETTLED

The Pollock Road Case Now Scheduled for a Seventh Hearing.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—
The matter of the township road through the Pollock farm in Elkrun township petitioned for by John Patterson and others will next be heard in common pleas court.

Patterson's attorneys have taken the case there on error. If heard again, this will be the seventh hearing.

And Still They Come.

Mayor Means, of Steubenville, received a letter yesterday from a Cincinnati man named Thomas saying that he and his brother would like to marry the girls whose father is alleged to have said he would put up $1,000 each for husbands. A letter to the girls was also attached, to be delivered in case everything was all right. Thomas said he was in the patent medicine business.

Bill Introduced Allowing Use of Brick In Improving Highways.

CITIZENS ARE ALL IN FAVOR

Of a Proposition to Improve Calcutta Road From Calcutta Cityward.

A DEMOCRATIC SCHEME FAILS

Proposition to Investigate State Treasury Fell Flat, There Being Nothing to Investigate—Senator Archer's Game Bills Passed.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 19.—Mr. Crist will introduce a bill in the house giving the taxpayers of St. Clair township authority to improve roads. The measure will amend the general road improvement law by permitting the use of brick in the improvement of highways. The petition requesting the passage of the bill is signed by nearly every taxpayer and voter in the township. It is proposed to improve Calcutta road from the hamlet of Calcutta southward to the line of Liverpool township. The movement, it is thought, will result in the Calcutta road being paved from Calcutta into the city of East Liverpool.

The taxpayers of St. Clair propose to take the initiative in the matter of the improvement of roads and hope that their example will be emulated
by other townships in the county.
The bill will empower them to issue bonds.

Messrs. J. J. Purinton and J. E. Mc-Donald, of East Liverpool, arrived here yesterday, the former to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the State Building and Loan association, and the latter to attend to some private business. Mr. Purinton also called at the state house to do a little lobbying against the measure placing a new tax on building and loan associations. Another weighty petition against this tax was received from East Liverpool by Mr. Buell on Tuesday. Former Governor Bushnell was among those who were here yesterday filing protests against the Willis bill, taxing the capital stock of corporations.

A resolution introduced in the house by Mr. Sharp, of Fairfield, having for its purpose the investigation of the state treasury for 10 years past, created some surprise at first. No specific charges were made against either the present incumbent of the office or any of his predecessors. It was without doubt inspired by a baseless rumor to the effect that for some years treasurers of state possibly had loaned state funds, and it fell flat. It was one of those semi-annual political feel-ers thrown into the house by the opposition to make political capital. The friends of Mr. Cameron came promptly to the rescue and soon relegated the resolution to the political bone-yard. The investigation contemplated, will not be made for the very excellent reason that no investigation is necessary. Mr. Sharp acknowledges that his action was based on vague rumor.

Senator Archer's game bills were passed by the senate on Tuesday afternoon after several hours' debate.
Senator Connell succeeded in getting an amendment tacked onto one of the measures giving farmers and tenants the right to shoot rabbits on their premises. A great many amendments were offered to the bills, but most of them were voted down.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—

on examination, has been declared insane, and application will be made for her admission to the Massillon hospital. She is about 26 years old and of Drs. T. D. Marquis and W. N.

The postmaster promptly complied, sending the following telegram:

"Inbound freight, 850,000 tons, including coal. Outbound freight, 275,000 tons."

These statistics the postmaster was able to supply at once, having gathered much data on the subject when the matter was before congress a year or two ago, and it was only necessary to go to the same sources and bring the figures up to date by giving those for 1901.

The improvement advocated by the government engineers and which congress has shown a disposition to encourage is one which shall make the whole Ohio river from its source to its mouth navigable the year around. Appropriation for such work has been made in the last few years, not in a lump sum, but on the continuing contract system, a sufficient amount being appropriated to keep the work going each year.

A ticket, to be known as a Citizens' ticket, was nominated by an assemblage of 49 voters in the Wellsville Methodist Protestant church last evening. In consequence there will be more "scratching" at the spring election than for many years.

Several of the strongest Republican nominees were indorsed and the man placed at the head of the ticket conceded to be a very strong candidate. He is a union man, works in a local pottery and is a prominent church member. With these acquisitions he will undoubtedly poll a good vote, as the Republican candidate and the probable Democratic candidate are being opposed by a large number, owing to their alleged affiliation for organizations other than the potteries and churches.

Those present at the last evening's meeting constituted some of the most prominent men of the city among whom were: Ellis Pease, J. C. Russell, Charles Woodruff, W. E. Davis, Isaac Sechrist, F. M. Halley, Gillis Moore, D. A. Tarr, William Donaldson, J. B. Goff, J. M. Russell, John Wilson, Captain Todd, H. J. C. Lewis, Hugh Andrews, Rev. W. M. Glasgow, Rev. C. L. V. McKee, A. C. Van Dyke, William Wooster, A. B. Apple, Albert Catlett, C. A. Peterson, C. McCartney, J. J. Dowling, W. J. Culp, J. L. Jurken, Aaron Eaton, Dr. McConnell, W. H. Daughaday and Charles Snediker. The organization was made permanent upon motion and F. M. Halley was elected chair man and A. C. Van Dyke, secretary.

A committee composed of Rev. C. L. V. McKee, Rev. J. B. Goff and Frank Groves was appointed to prepare a platform for the adoption of the organization. It follows:

"We, a convention of citizens of Wellsville, believe that a city government is for the safety, peace and prosperity of the citizens and for the preservation and improvement of their morals and not for the purpose of supplying a few persons with honorable and lucrative positions, much less for the protection of the vicious. We believe that existing laws should be enforced in their evident letter and spirit until they are repealed without regard to class or distinction, and that a sworn officer of the law who has failed to do so, to the best of his ability, is a perjurer.

"We believe that the officers of the city are not matters of party politics, but of business in which every citizen, rich or poor, landlord or tenant, is financially concerned and that honesty, sobriety and business ability are essential in public as well as private affairs.

"We believe in safe and clean streets, sanitary conditions of sewerage, an abundance of pure water and in plenty of steady light, and that these should be provided at a small cost. We believe that not only the good name of our city and the safety of ourselves and children, but that the business interests of our city demand the suppression of vice in whatever form by moral, capable and vigilant officers and the speedy punishment of the evildoer."

Upon this platform the following ticket was nominated:

For mayor—W. E. Davis.

For solicitor—Charles Boyd, Republican candidate, indorsed.

For treasurer—T. R. Andrews, indorsed.

For street commissioner—H. A. Herbert, indorsed.

A Girl Fainted And Men Were Hurt,

Seven couples of young people met with a mishap last night. They had a very pleasant sleighing party to the home of Miss Mary Lewis, north of Cannon's Mill. The evening was very pleasantly spent. On the return trip the merry party had reached a point near the home of James Crawford, when the sled struck a stone and overturned.

The entire party was thrown out and all were more or less injured. One young lady fainted and several of the men were hurt. A number of bloody noses resulted from their owners coming in contact with other people's heads. No one was seriously hurt.

A DEMOCRATIC SCHEME FAILS

ury Fell Flat, There Being Nothing

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 19.—Mr. Crist will introduce a bill in the house giving the taxpayers of St. Clair township authority to improve roads. The measure will amend the general road improvement law by permitting the use of brick in the improvement of highways. The petition requesting the passage of the bill is signed by nearly every taxpayer and voter in the township. It is proposed to improve Calcutta road from the hamlet of Calcutta southward to the line of Liverpool township. The movement, it is thought, will result in the Calcutta road being paved from Calcutta into the city of East Liverpool.

The taxpayers of St. Clair propose to take the initiative in the matter of the improvement of roads and hope that their example will be emulated by other townships in the county. The bill will empower them to issue bonds.

Messrs. J. J. Purinton and J. E. McDonald, of East Liverpool, arrived here yesterday, the former to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the State Building and Loan association, and the latter to attend to some private business. Mr. Purinton also called at the state house to do a little lobbying against the measure placing a new tax on building and loan associations. Another weighty petition against this tax was received from East Liverpool by Mr. Buell on Tuesday. Former Governor Bushnell was among those who were here yesterday filing protests against the Willis bill, taxing the capital stock of corporations.

A resolution introduced in the house by Mr. Sharp, of Fairfield, having for its purpose the investigation of the state treasury for 10 years past, created some surprise at first. No specific charges were made against either the present incumbent of the office or any of his predecessors. It was without doubt inspired by a baseless rumor to the effect that for some years treasurers of state possibly had loaned state funds, and it fell flat. It was one of those semi-annual political feelers thrown into the house by the opposition to make political capital. The friends of Mr. Cameron came promptly to the rescue and soon relegated the resolution to the political boneyard. The investigation contemplated will not be made for the very excellent reason that no investigation is necessary. Mr. Sharp acknowledges that his action was based on vague rumor.

Senator Archer's game bills were passed by the senate on Tuesday afternoon after several hours' debate. Senator Connell succeeded in getting an amendment tacked onto one of the measures giving farmers and tenants the right to shoot rabbits on their premises. A great many amendments were offered to the bills, but most of them were voted down.

HON. R. W. TAYLER AT WORK TO GET RIVER IMPROVEMENT

He Calls Upon Postmaster Surles
For Statistics of Local Tonnage.

Liverpool of Water
Transportation.

NEW LOCK AND DAM HERE

If Present Plans Are Carried Out
Would Be a Matter of Great Importance—Favorable Action By Congress Expected.

Hon. R. W. Tayler, who is diligent-ly at work to secure provision by the present congress for locks and dams for the improvement of the Ohio river, yesterday telegraphed Postmaster W. H. Surles as follows:

"Wire me today approximate annual tonnage of receipts and shipments of freight at East Liverpool."

The postmaster promptly complied, sending the following telegram:

"Inbound freight, 850,000 tons, including coal. Outbound freight, 275,000 tons."

These statistics the postmaster was able to supply at once, having gathered much data on the subject when the matter was before congress a year or two ago, and it was only necessary to go to the same sources and bring the figures up to date by giving those for 1901.

The improvement advocated by the government engineers and which congress has shown a disposition to encourage is one which shall make the whole Ohio river from its source to its mouth navigable the year around. Appropriation for such work has been made in the last few years, not in a lump sum, but on the continuing contract system, a sufficient amount being appropriated to keep the work going each year.

The proposed East-Liverpool dam, provided for in the house bill introduced in January, 1901, which failed to pass at the last session, is known as "movable dam No. 8," and its location is to be just below this city at Walker. For the completion of the lock, including purchase of site, an expenditure not exceeding $250,000 was proposed in the old bill. The total improvement, including lock, dam, etc., completed, is estimated to cost about $800,000.

It can readily be seen that such an expenditure here would vastly benefit the city while the improvement is in progress, to say nothing of the benefits to result to commerce and industry after the work is completed.

Those best posted on river interests are confident of securing from the present congress such legislation as will show appropriate recognition of the needs of the Ohio valley and of a disposition to hasten the completion of the whole great work.

FOR ROAD COMMISSIONERS

Petition Numerously Signed in Favor of Representative Pollock's Bill.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—Over 500 signatures have been secured to a petition to be sent to the Columbiana county representatives in the legislature, asking support for a measure to provide township road commissioners.

The county's representatives will be asked to see that the bill of Representative Pollock, of Stark, providing for this arrangement, be made also to apply to Columbiana county. Mr. Pollock's bill abolishes the office of road supervisor and instead a township commissioner is to be appointed by the trustees.

The petition is being circulated in Lisbon by Jacob Morrison.

MRS. G. S. GOODWIN HAS PASSED AWAY

A LONG ILLNESS.

She Was Prominent in Church,
Social And Charitable
Work Here.

Mrs. Josephine Goodwin, wife of George S. Goodwin, passed away peacefully at 5 o'clock this morning, after a lingering illness. Though her death had been expected for many weeks the sad intelligence came as a shock to a large circle of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Goodwin was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Bunting and was born at Hamilton, W. Va. In early childhood the family went to Wells-ville. There she received her education at a private school conducted by Prof. Lafferty and later she attended Beaver college.

Besides having a liberal education, Mrs. Goodwin was endowed with an unusually bright intellect and in business affairs had very keen foresight and fine executive ability. She was fond of reading and kept well posted on current events and was an entertaining conversationalist. In her domestic affairs she was exceedingly practical and thorough and took the greatest pride in making her home delightfully attractive to her family and friends. As a hostess she was noted for her hospitality.

When 13 years of age she joined the Presbyterian church of Wells-ville. After coming to this city she identified herself with the First Presbyterian church and was an active and efficient worker of the missionary society.

One of the strongest traits of her character was her thoughtfulness of others, particularly the aged and the afflicted. She was embodiment of kindness. She will be missed and mourned by a large number, to whom in a quiet and unostentatious way, she had been a benefactor, and her many kind deeds will be gratefully remembered. In disposition she was cheerful, and her genial nature won for her a host of friends, to whom she was always loyal. Her last illness was borne with Christian fortitude and she clearly expressed herself as being ready for the transition.

In the midst of a happy home life her early taking away is mourned not only by a devoted husband, her son and daughter, four brothers and four sisters, but a large circle of friends who regret her demise as a personal loss. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the residence Fifth and Jackson. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. G. Jordan. The interment will be at Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Mercer Alleges That He Has

Guilt And Makes Charges Also.

Marshal Charles Johnson, of Salem, arrived in this city this morning with a warrant for Elmer Mercer, who was arrested at his home on Calcutta road last evening by Officers Thompson and Dawson.

A telephone message was received from the Salem official yesterday by Chief Thompson, stating that Mercer's wife, who is at present in Salem, had filed an affidavit against him charging non-support of a minor child. The officers here were requested to apprehend him.

The allegation is made by Mrs. Mercer that her husband has been living here with another woman. He denies the charge and further claims he is not guilty of the charge of non-support. The couple have not been living together for some time and since their separation their child has been in charge of Mercer's sister.

It is alleged by the husband that his wife came here a few days ago and took the child to Salem. He says she caused his arrest simply for spite work. He will likely be given a trial tomorrow.

C. P. Rothwell, an extensive coal operator of East Palestine, arrived in Chester this morning and spent the day looking after the leases recently secured by him in this territory.

Mr. Rothwell now controls 3,500 acres of coal land just south of Chester, and it will be thoroughly developed within the next few months. Mr. Rothwell was questioned with reference to his intentions and said:

"Had the weather been at all favorable we would have had our drills at work long ago making tests. The apparatus has been made ready for immediate use, however, and just as soon as the weather will permit the work will be started."

EAST END

Nelsonville Men Who Propose Building a Pottery Looking Over Local Plants.

Ex-State Senator Dew, of Nelsonville, owner of the Dew house, of that town, and Mr. Steadley, a prominent coal operator of that section, have been in the East End for two days, and in company with Thomas Burton have inspected the East End and National potteries and the Potters' Mining and Milling plant.

It is the intention of these men to build a five-kiln pottery at Nelsonville, and they came to the East End at the solicitation of Mr. Burton, who proposes to interest himself in the new deal. The men expect to return to their homes this evening.

LARGELY ATTENDED

And of Great Interest Was the Meeting at Second Presbyterian Church.

A large congregation was again present last evening at the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. S. L. Boston preached a powerful and interesting sermon on the subject, "Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock."

Two beautiful solos were rendered by Prof. A. A. Laughlin, and two new members were taken into the church. Another meeting will be held this evening, when Rev. Mr. Boston will occupy the pulpit.

A meeting will also be held Thursday evening when, by special request, Prof. Laughlin will sing "The Holy City."

BROKEN TROLLEY WIRE

Delayed Street Railway Traffic—Fine Snow Also Caused Trouble.

The cold weather this morning caused the trolley wire of the East Liverpool railway to part at a point east of Ralston's crossing, causing passengers to be transferred for several hours. The line car was called, and after considerable work, the break was repaired.

Some trouble was experienced early last evening by the motormen of this line, in ascending the Washington street hill. The rails were very slippery, on account of the drifting snow, causing the men to lose much time.

Work on New Parsonage.

Owing to the revival service at the Erie street M. E. church no meeting of the official board, or the trustees of this church will be held this month. The next meeting will be held in March. Work on the new parsonage being built by this church has been delayed on account of the weather, but it is hoped the new house will be finished within three months.

Brown-Dillon.

At the Erie street M. E. parsonage, Rev. G. W. Orcutt last evening performed the ceremony which united Miss Amanda Brown and Edmund Dillon. The bride resides in the East End and is a popular young lady. The groom is from Empire and of a well-to-do family. They will make their home in the East End.

Nelsonville Men Who Propose Building a Pottery Looking Over Local Plants.

Ex-State Senator Dew, of Nelsonville, owner of the Dew house, of that town, and Mr. Steadley, a prominent coal operator of that section, have been in the East End for two days, and in company with Thomas Burton have inspected the East End and National potteries and the Potters' Mining and Milling plant.

It is the intention of these men to build a five-kiln pottery at Nelsonville, and they came to the East End at the solicitation of Mr. Burton, who proposes to interest himself in the new deal. The men expect to return to their homes this evening.

LARGELY ATTENDED

And of Great Interest Was the Meeting at Second Presbyterian Church.

A large congregation was again present last evening at the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. S. L. Boston preached a powerful and interesting sermon on the subject, "Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock."

Two beautiful solos were rendered by Prof. A. A. Laughlin, and two new members were taken into the church. Another meeting will be held this evening, when Rev. Mr. Boston will occupy the pulpit.

A meeting will also be held Thursday evening when, by special request, Prof. Laughlin will sing "The Holy City."

BROKEN TROLLEY WIRE

Delayed Street Railway Traffic—Fine Snow Also Caused Trouble.

The cold weather this morning caused the trolley wire of the East Liverpool railway to part at a point east of Ralston's crossing, causing passengers to be transferred for several hours. The line car was called, and after considerable work, the break was repaired.

Some trouble was experienced early last evening by the motormen of this line, in ascending the Washington street hill. The rails were very slippery, on account of the drifting snow, causing the men to lose much time.

Work on New Parsonage.

Owing to the revival service at the Erie street M. E. church no meeting of the official board, or the trustees of this church will be held this month. The next meeting will be held in March. Work on the new parsonage being built by this church has been delayed on account of the weather, but it is hoped the new house will be finished within three months.

Brown-Dillon.

At the Erie street M. E. parsonage, Rev. G. W. Orcutt last evening performed the ceremony which united Miss Amanda Brown and Edmund Dillon. The bride resides in the East End and is a popular young lady. The groom is from Empire and of a well-to-do family. They will make their home in the East End.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Rosie Alley, of Erie street, is very ill.

John Hays, of the East End, is ill with the grip.

Frank White, of Railroad street was in Toronto today.

Mrs. Thomas Smith, of Calhoun's addition, is under the care of a physician.

Samuel R. Dixon, of St. George street, left this morning for Alliance, where he will remain several days on business.

Arrangements toward the settling of the estate of H. Moore Ralston, late of the East End, were commenced this morning.

Recovering from Injuries.

Bert Hersher, a glist kilnman at Laughlin's No. 2, who was injured by being struck on the head by some falling saggars yesterday, is recovering. Three stitches were required to close the cut in his head.

LARKIN IS ELECTED.

Anti-Flinn-Stone Candidate Is Chosen Controller of Pittsburgh.

MACHINE WON IN PHILADELPHIA

Quay-Durham-Ashbridge People Carried the Quaker City—Anti-Machine People May Control Pittsburgh Councils—Other Election News

Pittsburg, Feb. 19.—John B. Larkin, the anti-Flinn-Stone candidate, was yesterday elected city controller on the largest vote ever polled in the city, over Lewis, the Republican machine candidate, by a majority that may attain or exceed 10,000. The total vote reached 50,000. The city council has been carried by the united Citizens and Democrats, and will be anti-machine in both branches.

Returns from the ward contests which had been received at 1 o'clock this morning showed that the Citizens party will have an overwhelming majority of common council, and that they stand a fairly good chance to organize the select branch also.

Machine Carried Philadelphia. Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—In every ward in the city the Quay-Durham-Ashbridge machine was triumphant by probably 75,000 majority. The showing made by the fusion ticket was disappointing, and the ultra reform tickets received little or no support. City Solicitor John L. Kinsey was re-elected; four machine Republicans were elected magistrates with Gorman and Fitzpatrick, Quay Democrats, as minority magistrates.

Eighteen select and 62 common councilmen were elected, all of whom will support the "administration."

Harrisburg, Feb. 19.—Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic nominee for mayor, is elected by 8,000 majority over Dr. Samuel F. Hassler, Republican. The Democrats also claim the election of John K. Royal, city treasurer; William H. Moore, city controller, and James H. W. Howard and William M. Gastrock and George W. Leiseman, Jr., city assessors.

Ex-Football Captain.

McCormick is 29 years old and was captain of the famous Yale football team in 1892. The proposition to increase the city indebtedness $1,090,000 for public improvements was adopted by 5,000 majority. McCormick was one of the originators of this movement and had charge of the legislation in common council, of which he is a member.

At midnight the Republican leaders conceded the election of the entire Democratic city ticket.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 19.—Altoona has elected the Democratic candidate for mayor, treasurer and controller, S. M. Hoyer, Fred Sheffield and Joseph Hammer respectively, defeating the Republican candidates, John Plummer, George Harpham and J. Leamer. The Republicans elect the school directors, Dr. McCarthy and D. K. Howe, and the board of assessors. The eight common and four select councilmen are divided between the two parties equally. About 6,000 votes were polled, a large number for a local election. William T. Howard, independent candidate for mayor, contributed to the defeat of the Republican ticket. Hoyer's majority may reach 1,200.

Republicans Carried Johnstown.

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 19.—The Republicans carried the city by majorities ranging from 500 to 700. John Pendry, Republican, will succeed I. D. Woodruff, Democrat, as mayor. Alexander Wilson and Charles H. Wehn, both Republicans, were elected controller and treasurer respectively and will succeed Republicans in office.

The total vote cast was about 5,300, which is over 400 below that cast in the municipal election of 1899. A fierce snow storm raged all day and kept many voters at home.

MISS MORTON A BRIDE.

Fourth Daughter of Ex-Vice President Married to Mr. Rutherford.

New York, Feb. 19.—Miss Alice Morton, fourth daughter of former Vice President Morton, and Winthrop Rutherford were married in Grace Episcopal church. The Rev. Dr. Huntington, rector of the church, officiated. The wedding was simple in the extreme, there being no bridesmaids and no decorations in the church, except two bouquets of ascension lilies that filled the vases on the altar. The ushers were Winthrop Chanler, Egerton Winthrop, Jr., J. Borden Harriman, William R. Travers and Herman Duryea.

The bride was gowned in heavy ivory satin, severely plain, with a veil of Brussels lace that was caught with a slender spray of orange blossoms and fell over the train of her gown. She wore no jewels and carried an ivory prayer book.

Those present included the Marquise De Talleyrand, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Twombly and Dr. and Mrs. Webb.

Favorable to Omnibus Claims Bill.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The senate committee on claims yesterday authorized a favorable report on the omnibus claims bill, and later in the day Senator Warren reported the bill to the senate. As reported, the bill provides for the payment of about 400 claims and makes an aggregate appropriation of $3,051,842. Many other claims are referred to the executive departments for findings. No claim which has not been passed by either the senate or house is included in the bill.

TRIED TO BRIBE RICE'S SERVANT.

Valet Jones Said Patrick Offered Him Money to Swear Falsely.

New York, Feb. 19.—After several days of examination and cross-examination of exports, new interest in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, accused of the murder of William Marsh Rice, was aroused late yesterday afternoon, when Charles F. Jones, Mr. Rice's valet, who has been charged with being the tool of Lawyer Patrick in compassing the death of the millionaire, was put upon the stand by the state.

Jones, in part, said that Patrick called at Rice's apartments in October, 1899, to see Rice and said his name was Smith. Rice was in bed and the defendant said he would call again. This he did, about a week later.

"It was about 8 o'clock in the evening," said Jones. "I saw him in the parlor. Mr. Rice was in the back room. He spoke of Texas news. Either at that visit or one he paid a week later, Patrick talked about the trial of the claim against Mr. Rice under the will of Mrs. Rice. He seemed much interested and asked if the case had been settled. He said the evidence was very strong in favor of Mr. Holt."

"On his second visit, I think, he told me he was Mr. Holt's lawyer. He told me the terms of a settlement had been arranged and said if I would write it out on the typewriter he would get it signed. He gave me a sheet of paper with the writing in pencil that he wanted copied."

"Did Mr. Rice see Patrick?" asked Mr. Osborne, for the state. "He opened the door while Patrick was talking to me. I don't think he recognized him."

Jones described the letter Patrick wanted him to write. The letter was to state that Mr. Rice had lost confidence in his Texas lawyer, but that he loved Texas and wanted to return there and wanted the litigation settled. In reply to Mr. Osborne's question, Jones said:

"Patrick was to give me $250 for it, but he would not give me the money unless I would go on the witness stand and swear that Rice signed it. I refused to give him the letter."

"Patrick told me Mr. Holt had given him $500 and had promised him $10,000 when a settlement of the litigation was effected."

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. OBJECTIONS FILED

To Bridge Over the Ohio River Which Will Have to Be Rebuilt.

Bridge architecture on the Ohio river is to undergo a complete revolution. All the Baltimore and Ohio bridges spanning the stream are to be rebuilt, and objections have been filed against the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie bridge is just below the mouth of the Beaver river, which rushes in with a side current, which makes it almost an impossibility for the pilots to avoid striking the abutments.

The Steubenville bridge of the Panhandle is in a bad location as there is a very abrupt bend in the river one mile above the piers, and boats rounding this bend come within the full sweep of the wind so that it is a difficult matter to steer for the channel span. It is believed now that the government will co-operate with the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie and the P. C. C. & St. L. and stand one-half the cost of rebuilding the two bridges. It is said that if the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie bridge is to be rebuilt it a double track structure clear across the valley from Monaca to Beaver.

Doing Good.

A great deal of good is being done in all parts of the country by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good work, of aggravating and persistent coughs that have yielded to its soothing effects, of severe colds that have been broken up by its use, of threatened attacks of pneumonia that have been worded off and of dangerous cases of croup that it has cured. The great popularity and extensive sale of this preparation can not be a surprise to anyone who is acquainted with its good qualities. Inclement Weather Brings Coughs, Colds and Catarrh.

Inclement weather begins when autumn ends. The great objection to our climate is that it alternates between the heat of the tropics and the rigors of the Arctic.

The system becomes relaxed by the effects of the heat, and the first cold snap of winter sows the seed of thousands of cases of chronic catarrh which in a large per cent. of cases will end fatally.

Congressman Horace G. Snover, of Port Austin, Mich., writes from House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I have found Peruna a very efficient and speedy remedy for a persistent and annoying cough resulting from catarrhal trouble."—Horace G. Snover.

Wm. Ubelaker, President of the Lake View Lodge of Foresters, writes from 3327 North Clark St., Chicago, Ill., the following letter:

Gentlemen—For years past when I have been exposed to wet or inclement weather, my chest would hurt me and I would have serious indigestion, and I would be laid up for a day or two, causing inconvenience and pain.

One of my lodge friends advised me to try Peruna, as it had helped him, and I found that a bottle cured me.

If I feel badly now I at once take two or three doses, and I find it keeps me in fine health. Peruna is worthy of every one's confidence.—WM. UBELAKER.

It is only just ordinary good, common sense to provide against inclement weather. If you have the slightest cold, cough, sneezing, or any other indication that you are "under the weather," a few doses of Peruna will put you right.

Mrs. Lavina E. Walker, who holds the highest state office of the Ladies of the Illinois G. A. R., which is Department Chaplain, writes the following letter:

WESTERN SPRINGS, ILL. The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—"You have my sincere gratitude for placing before suffering women a medicine which has proven such a blessing as Peruna has."

"I have used it myself when much worn out, and found most gratifying results, and a number of the women of our Order suffering with weakness peculiar to women, have been wonderfully helped and cured by Peruna."—Lavina E. Walker.

LARKIN IS ELECTED.

Anti-Flinn-Stone Candidate Is Chosen Controller of Pittsburgh.

Quay-Durham-Ashbridge People Carried the Quaker City—Anti-Machine People May Control Pittsburgh Councils—Other Election News

Pittsburg, Feb. 19.—John B. Larkin, the anti-Flinn-Stone candidate, was yesterday elected city controller on the largest vote ever polled in the city, over Lewis, the Republican machine candidate, by a majority that may attain or exceed 10,000. The total vote reached 50,000. The city council has been carried by the united Citizens and Democrats, and will be anti-machine in both branches.

Returns from the ward contests which had been received at 1 o'clock this morning showed that the Citizens party will have an overwhelming majority of common council, and that they stand a fairly good chance to organize the select branch also.

Machine Carried Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—In every ward in the city the Quay-Durham-Ashbridge machine was triumphant by probably 75,000 majority. The showing made by the fusion ticket was disappointing, and the ultra reform tickets received little or no support. City Solicitor John L. Kinsey was re-elected; four machine Republicans were elected magistrates with Gorman and Fitzpatrick, Quay Democrats, as minority magistrates.

Eighteen select and 62 common councilmen were elected, all of whom will support the "administration."

Harrisburg, Feb. 19.—Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic nominee for mayor, is elected by 8,000 majority over Dr. Samuel F. Hassler, Republican. The Democrats also claim the election of John K. Royal, city treasurer; William H. Moore, city controller, and James H. W. Howard and William M. Gastrock and George W. Leiseman, Jr., city assessors.

Ex-Football Captain.

McCormick is 29 years old and was captain of the famous Yale football team in 1892. The proposition to increase the city indebtedness $1,090,000 for public improvements was adopted by 5,000 majority. McCormick was one of the originators of this movement and had charge of the legislation in common council, of which he is a member.

About 6,000 votes were polled, a large number for a local election. William T. Howard, independent candidate for mayor, contributed to the defeat of the Republican ticket. Hoyer's majority may reach 1,200.

Republicans Carried Johnstown.

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 19.—The Republicans carried the city by majorities ranging from 500 to 700. John Pendry, Republican, will succeed I. D. Woodruff, Democrat, as mayor. Alexander Wilson and Charles H. Wehn, both Republicans, were elected controller and treasurer respectively and will succeed Republicans in office.

The total vote cast was about 5,300, which is over 400 below that cast in the municipal election of 1899. A fierce snow storm raged all day and kept many voters at home.

MISS MORTON A BRIDE.

Fourth Daughter of Ex-Vice President Married to Mr. Rutherford.

New York, Feb. 19.—Miss Alice Morton, fourth daughter of former Vice President Morton, and Winthrop Rutherford were married in Grace Episcopal church. The Rev. Dr. Huntington, rector of the church, officiated. The wedding was simple in the extreme, there being no bridesmaids and no decorations in the church, except two bouquets of ascension lilies that filled the vases on the altar. The ushers were Winthrop Chanler, Egerton Winthrop, Jr., J. Borden Harriman, William R. Travers and Herman Duryea.

The bride was gowned in heavy ivory satin, severely plain, with a veil of Brussels lace that was caught with a slender spray of orange blossoms and fell over the train of her gown. She wore no jewels and carried an ivory prayer book.

Those present included the Marquise De Talleyrand, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Twombly and Dr. and Mrs. Webb.

Favorable to Omnibus Claims Bill.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The senate committee on claims yesterday authorized a favorable report on the omnibus claims bill, and later in the day Senator Warren reported the bill to the senate. As reported, the bill provides for the payment of about 400 claims and makes an aggregate appropriation of $3,051,842. Many other claims are referred to the executive departments for findings. No claim which has not been passed by either the senate or house is included in the bill.

TRIED TO BRIBE RICE'S SERVANT.

Valet Jones Said Patrick Offered Him Money to Swear Falsely.

New York, Feb. 19.—After several days of examination and cross-examination of exports, new interest in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, accused of the murder of William Marsh Rice, was aroused late yesterday afternoon, when Charles F. Jones, Mr. Rice's valet, who has been charged with being the tool of Lawyer Patrick in compassing the death of the millionaire, was put upon the stand by the state.

Jones, in part, said that Patrick called at Rice's apartments in October, 1899, to see Rice and said his name was Smith. Rice was in bed and the defendant said he would call again. This he did, about a week later.

"It was about 8 o'clock in the evening," said Jones. "I saw him in the parlor. Mr. Rice was in the back room. He spoke of Texas news. Either at that visit or one he paid a week later, Patrick talked about the trial of the claim against Mr. Rice under the will of Mrs. Rice. He seemed much interested and asked if the case had been settled. He said the evidence was very strong in favor of Mr. Holt."

"On his second visit, I think, he told me he was Mr. Holt's lawyer. He told me the terms of a settlement had been arranged and said if I would write it out on the typewriter he would get it signed. He gave me a sheet of paper with the writing in pencil that he wanted copied."

"Did Mr. Rice see Patrick?" asked Mr. Osborne, for the state.

"He opened the door while Patrick was talking to me. I don't think he recognized him."

Jones described the letter Patrick wanted him to write. The letter was to state that Mr. Rice had lost confidence in his Texas lawyer, but that he loved Texas and wanted to return there and wanted the litigation settled. In reply to Mr. Osborne's question, Jones said:

"Patrick was to give me $250 for it, but he would not give me the money unless I would go on the witness stand and swear that Rice signed it. I refused to give him the letter."

"Patrick told me Mr. Holt had given him $500 and had promised him $10,000 when a settlement of the litigation was effected."

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. To Bridge Over the Ohio River Which Will Have to Be Rebuilt.

Bridge architecture on the Ohio river is to undergo a complete revolution. All the Baltimore and Ohio bridges spanning the stream are to be rebuilt, and objections have been filed against the Pittsburg and Lake Erie bridge is just below the mouth of the Beaver river, which rushes in with a side current, which makes it almost an impossibility for the pilots to avoid striking the abutments.

The Steubenville bridge of the Panhandle is in a bad location as there is a very abrupt bend in the river one mile above the piers, and boats rounding this bend come within the full sweep of the wind so that it is a difficult matter to steer for the channel span. It is believed now that the government will co-operate with the Pittsburg and Lake Erie and the P. C. & St. L. and stand one-half the cost of rebuilding the two bridges. It is said that if the Pittsburg & Lake Erie bridge is to be rebuilt the company will insist on making it a double track structure clear across the valley from Monaca to Beaver.

Inclement Weather Brings Coughs, Colds and Catarrh.

Inclement weather begins when autumn ends. The great objection to our climate is that it alternates between the heat of the tropics and the rigors of the Arctic.

The system becomes relaxed by the effects of the heat, and the first cold snap of winter sows the seed of thousands of cases of chronic catarrh which in a large per cent. of cases will end fatally.

Wm. Ubelaker, President of the Lake View Lodge of Foresters, writes from 3327 North Clark St., Chicago, Ill., the following letter:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—For years past when I have been exposed to wet or inclement weather, my chest would hurt me and I would have serious indigestion, and I would be laid up for a day or two, causing inconvenience and pain.

One of my lodge friends advised me to try Peruna, as it had helped him, and I found that a bottle cured me.

If I feel badly now I at once take two or three doses, and I find it keeps me in fine health. Peruna is worthy of every one's confidence.—WM. UBELAKER.

It is only just ordinary good, common sense to provide against inclement weather. If you have the slightest cold, cough, sneezing, or any other indication that you are "under the weather," a few doses of Peruna will put you right.

Congressman Horace G. Snover, of Port Austin, Mich., writes from House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I have found Peruna a very efficient and speedy remedy for a persistent and annoying cough resulting from catarrhal trouble."—Horace G. Snover.

Mrs. Lavina E. Walker, who holds the highest state office of the Ladies of the Illinois G. A. R., which is Department Chaplain, writes the following letter:

LARKIN IS ELECTED.

Anti-Flinn-Stone Candidate Is Chosen Controller of Pittsburgh.

Quay-Durham-Ashbridge People Carried the Quaker City—Anti-Machine People May Control Pittsburgh Councils—Other Election News

Pittsburg, Feb. 19.—John B. Larkin, the anti-Flinn-Stone candidate, was yesterday elected city controller on the largest vote ever polled in the city, over Lewis, the Republican machine candidate, by a majority that may attain or exceed 10,000. The total vote reached 50,000. The city council has been carried by the united Citizens and Democrats, and will be anti-machine in both branches. Returns from the ward contests which had been received at 1 o'clock this morning showed that the Citizens party will have an overwhelming majority of common council, and that they stand a fairly good chance to organize the select branch also.

Machine Carried Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—In every ward in the city the Quay-Durham-Ashbridge machine was triumphant by probably 75,000 majority. The showing made by the fusion ticket was disappointing, and the ultra reform tickets received little or no support. City Solicitor John L. Kinsey was re-elected; four machine Republicans were elected magistrates with Gorman and Fitzpatrick, Quay Democrats, as minority magistrates. Eighteen select and 62 common councilmen were elected, all of whom will support the "administration."

Harrisburg, Feb. 19.—Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic nominee for mayor, is elected by 8,000 majority over Dr. Samuel F. Hassler, Republican. The Democrats also claim the election of John K. Royal, city treasurer; William H. Moore, city controller, and James H. W. Howard and William M. Gastrock and George W. Laisman, Jr., city assessors.

Ex-Football Captain.

McCormick is 29 years old and was captain of the famous Yale football team in 1892. The proposition to increase the city indebtedness $1,090,000 for public improvements was adopted by 5,000 majority. McCormick was one of the originators of this movement and had charge of the legislation in common council, of which he is a member.

At midnight the Republican leaders conceded the election of the entire Democratic city ticket.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 19.—Altoona has elected the Democratic candidate for mayor, treasurer and controller, S. M. Hoyer, Fred Sheffield and Joseph Hammer respectively, defeating the Republican candidates, John Plummer, George Harpham and J. Leamer. The Republicans elect the

CIRCULATION STATEMENT.

The sworn paid circulation of the EVENING NEWS REVIEW January
1, 1902, TWO THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY (2,250).

ONE THOUSAND THREE HUN-DRED AND SEVENTY-THREE

The proposition to have all milk
that is sold in East Liverpool subjected to tests and analyses is timely
and should be carried out by the health authorities. It is probable that few if any of the dairymen who supply this city are intentionally supplying impure milk, but it is by no means unlikely that some of the milk sold
may not be up to the standard, even though the dealers are not aware of the fact. As is frequently remarked, and as every physician will agree, impure milk is one of the most common causes of disease, and too much attention cannot be given to the source of supply. At Wheeling a state veterinarian has been examining dairy herds and has found many cow-stables
in such a filthy condition that he has refused to grant their owners certificates. He has also discovered tuberculosis among cows, whose milk has been peddled about the city. The result will probably be a diligent effort
to make the dairymen comply with the law. Such an effort should be put forth everywhere. Good milk is one of the best of foods; bad milk one
of the most unhealthy and dangerous.

All the Ohio valley will be benefited
if the proposed improvements on the Ohio river are made. The more promptly work is started and the task
completed the better for all interests concerned. East Liverpool has every reason for earnestly seconding the efforts of Congressman Taylor to secure an appropriation for the proposed lock and dam below this city.
One of the greatest needs of the city
today is more adequate transportation facilities. The freight tonnage, as will be seen by statistics elsewhere
given, is already surprisingly large,
and it is increasing at a rapid rate.
River improvements that would insure
a navigable stage of water at all seasons would be of inestimable value,
not alone to the industries of this city, but to those of the whole populous valley. There is no reason why
a fair and equitable river and harbor
bill should fail with this congress.
The government finances were never
in better shape, and there is no reasonable excuse for delaying the important work which the government has begun.

All the arguments in favor of free trade fail to explain satisfactorily
why the United States, a protectionist country, is able to outstrip free trade Great Britain in the commercial world. Last year America sold in foreign markets more products than were sold by England by $75,000,000.
The exports of the United Kingdom
have remained nearly stationary for 10 years, while those of the United States have increased from $872,000,
000 in 1891 to $1,438,746,083 in 1901,
or more than a half billion dollars.

A Philadelphia judge has decided that a man has a right to commit suicide. This is contrary to the usual rule, but there are certainly extenuating circumstances in the case of any man who has lived long enough in Philadelphia to become a resident.

If Senator Wellington expected to attract any attention by emerging from his retirement and making an "anti" speech, he will be disappointed. The country has heard quite enough of Wellington.

There is a phenomenal situation in the iron world. With production at its greatest height, the furnaces are still unable to supply the demand for pig iron, and for the first time in many years, orders have been placed abroad by American consumers. Thus other parts of the world will profit

by the prosperity of American industries.

The election result in Pittsburg was certainly a great surprise. Let us hope the Smoky City people have struck the right brand of reform at last.

A New York paper observes that there is more than $300,000,000 of water in the steel trust. Perhaps that is why so many persons are damming it.

Admiral Dewey having declined an invitation to meet the prince, an opportunity for a highly interesting conversation is lost.

The backbone of winter shows no sign of relaxing. It is equal to that of a Boer warrior.

Pittsburg has not had so much excitement since the Biddles eloped with Mrs. Soffel.

OR THE DAY PRINCE ARRIVES,

Admiral Evans Issues Orders to the Captains of His Fleet.

New York, Feb. 19.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans yesterday issued orders to the captains of his fleet concerning their duties on Washington's birthday, the day Prince Henry is expected to arrive. First, the orders direct that at 8 a. m. the vessels of the squadron will "full dress" ship and remain so dressed until sunset. At meridian a national salute will be fired.

When the Kronprinz Wilhelm, having on board Prince Henry, arrives the admiral and his staff will board her at or near quarantine. When the liner passes Admiral Evans' squadron the vessels will man the military tops, turrets and rails. A salute of 21 guns will be fired by each ship, the German flag being broken at the main at the first gun. At the last gun of the salute each vessel will haul down the German flag and re-hoist the American flag.

When the Hohenzollern hoists the imperial standard a salute of 21 guns will be fired by each ship of the squadron. After the imperial standard has been saluted commanding officers of the squadron will visit the Hohenzollern and pay their respects to Prince Henry.

The ships of the squadron will be illuminated with electric lights and mottoes furnished for the purpose from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The builders of Emperor William's yacht said yesterday that the platform around the yacht would only accommodate 200 people. These will be Prince Henry and his party, the president and his delegates and such others as can be accommodated.

As She Would Have Been.

A gentleman in Paris paid a visit to a lady, in whose parlor he saw a portrait of a lovely woman of, say, five and twenty. Upon the entrance of the lady her visitor naturally asked her if the picture was a family portrait and was told that it represented her deceased daughter. "Is it long since you lost her?" asked the gentleman. "Alas, sir," replied the lady, "she died just after her birth, and I had a portrait painted to represent her as she would have appeared if she had lived until now!"

POTTERY NEWS

The exclusive announcement in this paper last evening of the reported combination of five of the largest potteries in Trenton caused no end of talk among the manufacturers of this city. It had been known for some time that an effort was being quietly
made in Trenton to consolidate a number of factories in that city, but the fact that the deal was closed was not known in this city. The first news of the deal was telegraphed to Pittsburg yesterday morning, and shortly after noon the story was telephoned
to a prominent manufacturer in this city. When asked for an expression concerning this consolidation a prominent manufacturer said this morning:

"It seems to be the order of the day to consolidate, as it lessens competition, and there is not an industry
that I know of where competition is sharper than in the pottery trade. Not long ago I was talking with Mr.
Burgess, of the International pottery
of Trenton, and he said that while an attempt was there being made to effect a consolidation among the Trenton potters, he had been absent from the city for some time, and late events
in the proposition he was not acquainted with."

It was also announced by another manufacturer who had been approached on the subject, that overtures had been made by the eastern people to get one or two potteries in this section to go into the deal, but the offer
was refused. This statement was made by the person who had been approached about the new deal. It was also said that if the Trenton company
could not induce any local concerns
to go into the combination it was the intent of the company to secure properties, either old or new in the west,
in order that additional western business could be secured. The eastern manufacturer has not, it seems, been able to compete with his western brother on account of the greater variety of shapes to be found here. The eastern manufacturer is better able to handle southern coast trade than
the local concerns on account of the freight rates between Trenton and the south, and East Liverpool and the south. It is practically an all-rail route from this city to New Orleans
except when the river is open to navigation, but in the east freight can be sent south most of the year by water.

Considerable trouble has been experienced at the Union of late on account of the machinery, particularly
the engine, which has to be stopped
frequently during the day. Jiggermen and turners yesterday morning had a lengthy talk with Vice President
Frank W. Fowler, of Pittsburg, and asked him to make some arrangements whereby the turners and jiggermen could make better time with their work. It is claimed by the workmen that because the engine
stops so much it is almost impossible to make satisfactory pay. Mr. Fowler advised the men that necessary repairs would be made to the engine
at once, and if matters justified it a new engine would be secured. The Union company plans to place its plant
here in the best condition possible.

What may be the last general meeting of the stockholders of the Barberton Pottery company was to be held this afternoon at Barberton. All the stock was to be represented at this session, which was held for the purpose of considering plans concerning the future policy of the company. Ambrose Cartwright, who will
for Barberton Monday afternoon and will not return home until the last of the week. It is expected this plant will be placed in operation not later than June 1.

Claude Smith, corresponding secretary of Kilmen's local No. 9, will withdraw from that organization Friday evening and another member will be elected to fill the unexpired term
of Mr. Smith, who is representing a Pittsburg trade paper.

Harry Watkins, foreman, who has been in Chicago for several weeks
has returned to the city. "Hap" Reark
who was acting foreman during the absence of Mr. Watkins, has gone back to his former position making saucers.

William Harvey, an official of the New Castle pottery, was in the city yesterday on business. He said the pottery was running quite well for a new plant and that a good amount
of business was being offered.

Owing to ill health, Miss Anna
Moore, forewoman of the warehouse

of Bath, N. Y. Mrs. Case, who was at the sanitarium with her husband, escaped. She said she supposed the

OR THE DAY PRINCE ARRIVES,

Admiral Evans Issues Orders to the Captains of His Fleet.

New York, Feb. 19.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans yesterday issued orders to the captains of his fleet concerning their duties on Washington's birthday, the day Prince Henry is expected to arrive. First, the orders direct that at 8 a. m. the vessels of the squadron will "full dress" ship and remain so dressed until sunset. At meridian a national salute will be fired.

When the Kronprinz Wilhelm, having on board Prince Henry, arrives the admiral and his staff will board her at or near quarantine. When the liner passes Admiral Evans' squadron the vessels will man the military tops, turrets and rails. A salute of 21 guns will be fired by each ship, the German flag being broken at the main at the first gun. At the last gun of the salute each vessel will haul down the German flag and re-hoist the American flag.

When the Hohenzollern hoists the imperial standard a salute of 21 guns will be fired by each ship of the squadron. After the imperial standard has been saluted commanding officers of the squadron will visit the Hohenzollern and pay their respects to Prince Henry.

The ships of the squadron will be illuminated with electric lights and mottoes furnished for the purpose from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The builders of Emperor William's yacht said yesterday that the platform around the yacht would only accommodate 200 people. These will be Prince Henry and his party, the president and his delegates and such others as can be accommodated.

POTTERY NEWS

The exclusive announcement in this paper last evening of the reported combination of five of the largest potteries in Trenton caused no end of talk among the manufacturers of this city. It had been known for some time that an effort was being quietly made in Trenton to consolidate a number of factories in that city, but the fact that the deal was closed was not known in this city. The first news of the deal was telegraphed to Pittsburgh yesterday morning, and shortly after noon the story was telephoned to a prominent manufacturer in this city. When asked for an expression concerning this consolidation a prominent manufacturer said this morning:

"It seems to be the order of the day to consolidate, as it lessens competition, and there is not an industry that I know of where competition is sharper than in the pottery trade. Not long ago I was talking with Mr. Burgess, of the International pottery of Trenton, and he said that while an attempt was there being made to effect a consolidation among the Trenton potters, he had been absent from the city for some time, and late events in the proposition he was not acquainted with."

It was also announced by another manufacturer who had been approached on the subject, that overtures had been made by the eastern people to get one or two potteries in this section to go into the deal, but the offer was refused. This statement was made by the person who had been approached about the new deal. It was also said that if the Trenton company could not induce any local concerns to go into the combination it was the intent of the company to secure properties, either old or new in the west, in order that additional western business could be secured. The eastern manufacturer has not, it seems, been able to compete with his western brother on account of the greater variety of shapes to be found here. The eastern manufacturer is better able to handle southern coast trade than the local concerns on account of the freight rates between Trenton and the south, and East Liverpool and the south. It is practically an all-rail route from this city to New Orleans except when the river is open to navigation, but in the east freight can be sent south most of the year by water.

Considerable trouble has been experienced at the Union of late on account of the machinery, particularly the engine, which has to be stopped frequently during the day. Jiggermen and turners yesterday morning had a lengthy talk with Vice President Frank W. Fowler, of Pittsburgh, and asked him to make some arrangements whereby the turners and jiggermen could make better time with their work. It is claimed by the workmen that because the engine stops so much it is almost impossible to make satisfactory pay. Mr. Fowler advised the men that necessary repairs would be made to the engine at once, and if matters justified it a new engine would be secured. The Union company plans to place its plant here in the best condition possible.

ONE LIFE PROBABLY LOST;

IRA SANKEY ESCAPED.

Battle Creek, Mich., Feb. 19.—It is now supposed that one life was lost in the sanitarium fire here. The missing man is Abner Case, aged 83, of Bath, N. Y. Mrs. Case, who was at the sanitarium with her husband, escaped. She said she supposed the nurse who was attending her husband succeeded in getting him out. His remains have not been recovered. Ira D. Sankey, the evangelist, was also an inmate of the institution, but managed to get out by climbing down a fire escape.

To Transfer U. S. Prisoners.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19.—Preparations were completed by United States Marshal Fagin for the transfer of 44 federal convicts from the Ohio penitentiary to the new United States prison at Atlanta, Ga. The prisoners will be transported in a special car, and will leave Columbus Thursday. The law does not permit the handcuffing of prisoners to the seats for the reason that in case of accident they would be helpless, but the men will be handcuffed and shackled together in pairs and all connected by a long chain.

The proposition to have all milk
that is sold in East Liverpool subjected to tests and analyses is timely
and should be carried out by the health authorities. It is probable that few if any of the dairymen who supply this city are intentionally supplying impure milk, but it is by no means
unlikely that some of the milk sold
may not be up to the standard, even though the dealers are not aware of the fact. As is frequently remarked,
and as every physician will agree, im-
pure milk is one of the most common causes of disease, and too much attention cannot be given to the source of supply. At Wheeling a state veterinarian has been examining dairy
herds and has found many cow-stables
in such a filthy condition that he has refused to grant their owners certificates. He has also discovered tuberculosis among cows whose milk has been peddled about the city. The result will probably be a diligent effort
to make the dairymen comply with the law. Such an effort should be put forth everywhere. Good milk is one of the best of foods; bad milk one
of the most unhealthy and dangerous.

All the Ohio valley will be benefited
if the proposed improvements on the Ohio river are made. The more promptly work is started and the task
completed the better for all interests
concerned. East Liverpool has every reason for earnestly seconding the efforts of Congressman Taylor to secure an appropriation for the proposed lock and dam below this city.
One of the greatest needs of the city
today is more adequate transportation
facilities. The freight tonnage, as
will be seen by statistics elsewhere
given, is already surprisingly large,
and it is increasing at a rapid rate.
River improvements that would insure
a navigable stage of water at all seasons would be of inestimable value,
not alone to the industries of this
city, but to those of the whole populous valley. There is no reason why
a fair and equitable river and harbor
bill should fail with this congress.
The government finances were never
in better shape, and there is no reasonable excuse for delaying the important work which the government
has begun.

All the arguments in favor of free
trade fail to explain satisfactorily
why the United States, a protection-
ist country, is able to outstrip free
trade Great Britain in the commercial world. Last year America sold in foreign markets more products than
were sold by England by $75,000,000.
The exports of the United Kingdom
have remained nearly stationary for 10 years, while those of the United States have increased from $872,000-
000 in 1891 to $1,438,746,083 in 1901,
or more than a half billion dollars.

There is a phenomenal situation in

The exclusive announcement in this paper last evening of the reported
combination of five of the largest potteries in Trenton caused no end of
talk among the manufacturers of this city. It had been known for some time that an effort was being quietly
made in Trenton to consolidate a number of factories in that city, but the fact that the deal was closed was not known in this city. The first news of the deal was telegraphed to Pittsburg yesterday morning, and shortly
after noon the story was telephoned
to a prominent manufacturer in this city. When asked for an expression
concerning this consolidation a prominent manufacturer said this morning:
"It seems to be the order of the
day to consolidate, as it lessens competition, and there is not an industry
that I know of where competition is sharper than in the pottery trade.
Not long ago I was talking with Mr.
Burgess, of the International pottery
of Trenton, and he said that while
an attempt was there being made to effect a consolidation among the Trenton potters, he had been absent from
in the proposition he was not acquainted with."

It was also announced by another
manufacturer who had been approached on the subject, that overtures had been made by the eastern people to get one or two potteries in this section to go into the deal, but the offer
was refused. This statement was made by the person who had been approached about the new deal. It was also said that if the Trenton company
could not induce any local concerns
to go into the combination it was the intent of the company to secure properties, either old or new in the west,
in order that additional western business could be secured. The eastern manufacturer has not, it seems, been able to compete with his western brother on account of the greater variety of shapes to be found here. The eastern manufacturer is better able
to handle southern coast trade than
the local concerns on account of the freight rates between Trenton and
the south, and East Liverpool and the south. It is practically an all-rail
route from this city to New Orleans
except when the river is open to navigation, but in the east freight can be sent south most of the year by water.

Considerable trouble has been experienced at the Union of late on account of the machinery, particularly
the engine, which has to be stopped
frequently during the day. Jiggermen
and turners yesterday morning had a
Frank W. Fowler, of Pittsburg, and asked him to make some arrangements whereby the turners and jiggermen could make better time with their work. It is claimed by the workmen that because the engine
stops so much it is almost impossible
to make satisfactory pay. Mr. Fowler advised the men that necessary repairs would be made to the engine
at once, and if matters justified it a
new engine would be secured. The Union company plans to place its plant
here in the best condition possible.

What may be the last general meeting of the stockholders of the Barberton Pottery company was to be held this afternoon at Barbarton. All the stock was to be represented at
this session, which was held for the purpose of considering plans concerning the future policy of the com-
for Barbarton Monday afternoon and will not return home until the last of the week. It is expected this plant
will be placed in operation not later than June 1.

Claude Smith, corresponding secretary of Kilmen's local No. 9, will withdraw from that organization Friday evening and another member will
be elected to fill the unexpired term
of Mr. Smith, who is representing a Pittsburg trade paper.

Harry Watkins, foreman, who has been in Chicago for several weeks
has returned to the city. "Hap" Reark
who was acting foreman during the absence of Mr. Watkins, has gone back to his former position making
saucers.

William Harvey, an official of the New Castle pottery, was in the city yesterday on business. He said the pottery was running quite well for a
new plant and that a good amount
of business was being offered.

ONE LIFE PROBABLY LOST;

Battle Creek, Mich., Feb. 19.—It is now supposed that one life was lost in the sanitarium fire here. The missing man is Abner Case, aged 83,

at the sanitarium with her husband,
escaped. She said she supposed the nurse who was attending her husband succeeded in getting him out.
His remains have not been recovered.

the men will be handcuffed and shackled together in pairs and all

PETCH'S TRAGIC DEATH

WHIRLED AROUND BY SHAFTING FIFTY TIMES.

Horrible Sight Met the Son's Gaze. The Man's Death Instantaneous.

The body of John Petch, who met a horrible and untimely death at Newton Hamilton, Pa., Monday afternoon, was brought to the city on the afternoon train yesterday and removed to his late home on Second street, where scores of citizens assembled to view all that was mortal of a worthy citizen and a true friend.

Upon the arrival of her husband's remains Mrs. Petch displayed uncontrollable grief. She was heart-broken and it is feared, may suffer nervous prostration. The body was accompanied home by Charles Petch, a son. He was working in the adjoining room to where his father was killed and relates the story of the tragic death as follows:

"The last time I saw my father alive was at 1:30 o'clock when he left me with an oil can in his hand to oil two shafts in the engine room. About two minutes after he left a young boy came running to me and with a deathly pallor on his face, said: 'There is a man caught in the big shaft.' Father not being near, my first impulse was to run and shut off the engine, which I did but not until I started to see who the unfortunate man was did I think he had been the victim. I was almost afraid to go into the engine room, but finally did and the sight that met my gaze was awful. There on the ground lay my father mangled so horribly that he was hardly recognizable.

"His right arm was caught in the main shaft and he had been turned over and over at least 50 times. Upon each revolution his lower limbs came in contact with the rafters of the ceiling. His legs were broken off at the knees and his right arm was torn from the body. He met instant death, and as a result did not suffer much."

The funeral services were conducted at the house this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

G. B. ATEN INJURED

Prominent Merchant Badly Hurt By Being Struck By a Car.

George B. Aten, one of the most prominent and highly respected merchants of Wellsville, lies at his home on Front street, in a precarious condition.

He left his store yesterday afternoon for home, and at the corner of Seventh street, in averting a collision between himself and a team of horses which were traveling speedily toward him, he jumped to the middle of the street car track and directly in front of an east bound car.

The car struck him a violent blow, knocking him down and besides painfully bruising his left side and shoulder, inflicted an ugly gash in his head below the left temple. It is thought that if he is not internally injured he will recover in a short time. But, being an aged man, the wounds may prove very serious.

ROBBED OF $30

A Case of Petty Thieving in a Business Man's House on Main Street.

Another case of petty thieving has occurred in a prominent business man's house on Main street, and again it is the wish of the victim that his name be concealed. He stated last evening that some one entered his home Saturday night and ransacked several rooms, but took away nothing but money, which amounted to over $30. He is confident that he knows who the thief is. If his suspicions are correct the culprit is a boy whose parents are of good repute.

Barber Laurent Missing.

Ed Laurent, a barber who came to this city two weeks ago from Carnegie, and secured employment at H. E. Lownd's barber shop, left the city Saturday night. It seems he forgot to settle a board bill with Mrs. Metzger, of Main street, and Mr. Lownd's says he purloined several razors and scissors from him. No warrant is likely to be issued.

Mishap to a Coaster.

Robert Davidson, a lad of 14 years, while coasting fell from his sled against an iron projectile and sustained a painful wound under his left eye. The eye sight was not injured.

Funeral at Rochester.

Rev. Father James H. Halligan conducted the funeral services over the

Gold Furniture

Gold furniture is like dessert—it's the finishing touch. You don't want too much of it but a parlor to be well furnished needs a touch of it.

A Chair or Table or Cabinet in this finish gives a tone impossible to get with anything else. This spring we have put in a larger stock than ever before. Its popularity has so increased that we are selling it almost daily.

In our large window we are showing some pieces which will give you an idea of the beauty of the finish.

Flat Gold and Vernis Martin

You will notice two distinct effects in the gold finish. The dull is made with pure gold leaf, and in this the leaf is the last coat put on. In the Vernis Martin, or bright finish, the gold is put on as a powder which gives the beautiful mottled effect.

Over this is flowed a number of coats of the finest varnish. This makes it as durable as any finish made.

The Price

remains of the late Dennis Hayes at Rochester, Pa., yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of other Wellsville people attended the funeral. They were: Messrs. James O'Grady, E. J. Broderick, James Hayes and Mrs. William O'Grady.

A Fine Entertainment.

The literary and musical entertainment given by Local No. 24, N. B. of O. P., in McKenzie's hall last evening was the source of 'unalloyed pleasure' to nearly 300 guests. Locals Nos. 9 and 12 of East Liverpool were represented, and all report an enjoyable time. The committee to whom the success of the entertainment is due consisted of Messrs. William Gloss, Charles Raeger, S. S. Carnahan, Flora McDough and Chester Elliott.

New West End Dwelling.

Among the many new dwelling houses which will add greatly to the appearance of the West End is the one which is under construction in the Nicholson addition and which will be the property of Robert Bones, of Eighteenth street.

POPPING THE QUESTION.

Curious Methods That Prevail in Some Foreign Countries.

In this favored land of the free every lovelorn swain has his own way of making love and popping the question, but in some foreign countries the peasantry has peculiar and traditional ways of performing those pleasing functions. Among Hungarian gypsies cakes are used as love letters. Inside the cake is a coin, which is baked in it. The cake is flung to the favored object of one's affections. The retention of the cake signifies acceptance, but if it is flung back with force it signifies rejection.

The Japanese lover wishing to make known the state of his feelings throws a bunch of pale plum flower buds into his loved one's litter as she enters it to go to a friend's wedding. If she tosses the blossoms lightly out, the suitor knows that he is rejected, but if she fastens them to her girdle it is "Oh, happiness!" with him.

In some parts of Spain the young peasant looks unutterable things, but never tries to speak until he has been accepted. The girl neither looks nor speaks, but she sees. Late in the cool of the evening the youth knocks at her father's door and asks for a gourd of water. It is of course given to him. Then comes the crisis. If he is invited to take a chair within the porch or a seat in the garden, he is an accepted suitor, but if this civility is not extended to him he goes away knowing that he is rejected. If he is accepted, there is a general celebration by the family of the bride to be in honor of her betrothal.

When the Eskimo goes a-wooing, he walks to the house of his loved one's parents and, seizing the object of his affections by her long, strong hair or her furs, carries her away to his hut of snow or tent of skins. No matter how much the girl may reciprocate her suitor's affections, she always makes a show of resistance and tries to run away from him, this for the sake of preserving the conventionalities of Eskimo society.

Aged Couple's Awful Experience.

Fremont, O., Feb. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. John Glosser, an aged couple, were found in their home yesterday in a most pitiable condition. They had been overcome by gas last Saturday, and while prostrated their fires went out. Later they recovered consciousness, but could not move, and had been lying cold and helpless. They were so badly frozen that the arms and legs of both must be amputated. Neither is expected to recover.

Whistling.

As a method of prolonging life and strengthening the human frame against sickness whistling is said to be beyond compare. Development of chest and neck muscles is one of the special advantages claimed for the exercise. Long, deep breathing is an essential for a good whistler, as it is not permissible to draw in the breath except during the intervals of the sound production.

Petulant Tennyson.

Tennyson was one of the most fortunate of poets, in that he was rarely criticised adversely, yet Mr. Bram Stoker, who saw him often while his plays were in course of production at the Lyceum, said that he used constantly to complain of "the attacks made on him." He actually wound up one day by declaring that he often wished he had never written a line.

Another case of petty thieving has occurred in a prominent business man's house on Main street, and again it is the wish of the victim that his name be concealed. He stated last evening that some one entered his home Saturday night and ransacked several rooms, but took away nothing but money, which amounted to over $30. He is confident that he knows who the thief is. If his suspicions are correct the culprit is a boy whose parents are of good repute.

Barber Laurent Missing.

Ed Laurent, a barber who came to this city two weeks ago from Carnegie, and secured employment at H. E. Lownd's barber shop, left the city Saturday night. It seems he forgot to settle a board bill with Mrs. Metzger, of Main street, and Mr. Lownd's says he purloined several razors and scissors from him. No warrant is likely to be issued.

Gold Furniture

Gold furniture is like dessert—it's the finishing touch. You don't want too much of it but a parlor to be well furnished needs a touch of it.

A Chair or Table or Cabinet in this finish gives a tone impossible to get with anything else. This spring we have put in a larger stock than ever before. Its popularity has so increased that we are selling it almost daily.

In our large window we are showing some pieces which will give you an idea of the beauty of the finish.

Flat Gold and Vernis Martin

You will notice two distinct effects in the gold finish. The dull is made with pure gold leaf, and in this the leaf is the last coat put on. In the Vernis Martin, or bright finish, the gold is put on as a powder which gives the beautiful mottled effect.

Over this is flowed a number of coats of the finest varnish. This makes it as durable as any finish made.

The Price

The price is somewhat higher than the natural wood finished but not high enough to be prohibitory, especially when you consider that a few pieces are all you need.

POPPING THE QUESTION.

Curious Methods That Prevail In Some Foreign Countries.

In this favored land of the free every lover swain has his own way of making love and popping the question, but in some foreign countries the peasantry has peculiar and traditional ways of performing those pleasing functions. Among Hungarian gypsies cakes are used as love letters. Inside the cake is a coin, which is baked in it. The cake is flung to the favored object of one's affections. The retention of the cake signifies acceptance, but if it is flung back with force it signifies rejection.

The Japanese lover wishing to make known the state of his feelings throws a bunch of pale plum flower buds into his loved one's litter as she enters it to go to a friend's wedding. If she tosses the blossoms lightly out, the suitor knows that he is rejected, but if she fastens them to her girdle it is "Oh, happiness" with him.

In some parts of Spain the young peasant looks unutterable things, but never tries to speak until he has been accepted. The girl neither looks nor speaks, but she sees. Late in the cool of the evening the youth knocks at her father's door and asks for a gourd of water. It is of course given to him. Then comes the crisis. If he is invited to take a chair within the porch or a seat in the garden, he is an accepted suitor, but if this civility is not extended to him he goes away knowing that he is rejected. If he is accepted, there is a general celebration by the family of the bride to be in honor of her betrothal.

When the Eskimo goes a-wooing, he walks to the house of his loved one's parents and, seizing the object of his affections by her long, strong hair or her furs, carries her away to his hut of snow or tent of skins. No matter how much the girl may reciprocate her suitor's affections, she always makes a show of resistance and tries to run away from him, this for the sake of preserving the conventionalities of Eskimo society.

Aged Couple's Awful Experience.

Fremont, O., Feb. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. John Glosser, an aged couple, were found in their home yesterday in a most pitiable condition. They had been overcome by gas last Saturday, and while prostrated their fires went out. Later they recovered consciousness, but could not move, and had been lying cold and helpless. They were so badly frozen that the arms and legs of both must be amputated. Neither is expected to recover.

Whistling.

As a method of prolonging life and strengthening the human frame against sickness whistling is said to be beyond compare. Development of chest and neck muscles is one of the special advantages claimed for the exercise. Long, deep breathing is an essential for a good whistler, as it is not permissible to draw in the breath except during the intervals of the sound production.

Petulant Tennyson.

Tennyson was one of the most fortunate of poets, in that he was rarely criticised adversely, yet Mr. Bram Stoker, who saw him often while his plays were in course of production at the Lyceum, said that he used constantly to complain of "the attacks made on him." He actually wound up one day by declaring that he often wished he had never written a line.

PETCH'S TRAGIC DEATH

WHIRLED AROUND BY SHAFTING FIFTY TIMES.

Horrible Sight Met the Son's Gaze. The Man's Death Instantaneous.

The body of John Petch, who met a horrible and untimely death at Newton Hamilton, Pa., Monday afternoon, was brought to the city on the afternoon train yesterday and removed to his late home on Second street, where scores of citizens assembled to view all that was mortal of a worthy citizen and a true friend. Upon the arrival of her husband's remains Mrs. Petch displayed uncontrollable grief. She was heart-broken and it is feared, may suffer nervous prostration. The body was accompanied home by Charles Petch, a son. He was working in the adjoining room to where his father was killed and relates the story of the tragic death as follows:

"The last time I saw my father alive was at 1:30 o'clock when he left me with an oil can in his hand to oil two shafts in the engine room. About two minutes after he left a young boy came running to me and with a deathly pallor on his face, said: 'There is a man caught in the big shaft.' Father not being near, my first impulse was to run and shut off the engine, which I did, but not until I started to see who the unfortunate man was did I think he had been the victim. I was almost afraid to go into the engine room, but finally did and the sight that met my gaze was awful. There on the ground lay my father mangled so horribly that he was hardly recognizable.

"His right arm was caught in the main shaft and he had been turned over and over at least 50 times. Upon each revolution his lower limbs came in contact with the rafters of the ceiling. His legs were broken off at the knees and his right arm was torn from the body. He met instant death, and as a result did not suffer much."

The funeral services were conducted at the house this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

G. B. ATEN INJURED

Prominent Merchant Badly Hurt By Being Struck By a Car.

George B. Aten, one of the most prominent and highly respected merchants of Wellsville, lies at his home on Front street, in a precarious condition.

He left his store yesterday afternoon for home, and at the corner of Seventh street, in averting a collision between himself and a team of horses which were traveling speedily toward him, he jumped to the middle of the street car track and directly in front of an east bound car.

The car struck him a violent blow, knocking him down and besides painfully bruising his left side and shoulder, inflicted an ugly gash in his head below the left temple. It is thought that if he is not internally injured he will recover in a short time. But, being an aged man, the wounds may prove very serious.

MISS STONE IS FREE.

Dragoman of American Legation.

REV. TSILKA WAS ARRESTED.

Accused of Complicity In the Kidnap-ing of Miss Stone—Husband of the Woman Taken Captive With American Missionary.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The Temps last evening published a dispatch from Constantinople which announces that Miss Ellen M. Stone has been released by the brigands who have held her captive since Sept. 3 last, and has been handed over, in good health, to the dragoman of the American legation.

The dispatch adds that the "Reverend Tsilka" has been arrested on the charge of complicity in the kidnapping of Miss Stone.

The companion in captivity of Miss Stone was Madame K. S. Tsilka, a Bulgarian woman, wife of Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian teacher of Samakov. Miss Stone, while traveling with Madame Tsilka and a party of about 15 friends, was captured by brigands in the district of Salonica, Sept. 3. Since that time vigorous efforts have been made by the United States government and by missionaries to obtain the release of the captives. The brigands demanded a ransom of £25,000 (Turkish), but only $72,500 was collected for the ransom, and this sum was paid over to the brigands Feb. 6 by M. Gargiulo, chief dragoman of the American legation at Constantinople, and W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American mission at Constantinople, who met the brigands on the road to the Podrome monastery.

Madame Tsilka was educated at the Northfield seminary. At the time of receiving her American training and education she was Miss Stephanora, a Bulgarian. Having been converted in childhood to the Christian belief, she came to America, after having refused to marry the man of her parents' choosing. Dr. Dwight L. Moody, becoming interested in her welfare, found a place for her in his noted school. Having finished her training at that institution, she became a trained nurse. While engaged in her professional duties, in the Adirondacks, she became acquainted with Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian, who had also been educated in the United States. At that period he was preparing for work as a medical missionary. Soon after the completion of their training the couple were married and went to Bulgaria, where they at once entered upon missionary work.

Miss Stone is one of the missionaries of the American board of foreign missions. She has been attached to the Salonica mission since 1878. She was born in Roxbury, Mass., and her home is in Chelsea, Mass., where her mother resides.

A whirl of excitement was recently caused among scientists by the discovery of "how nerves act".

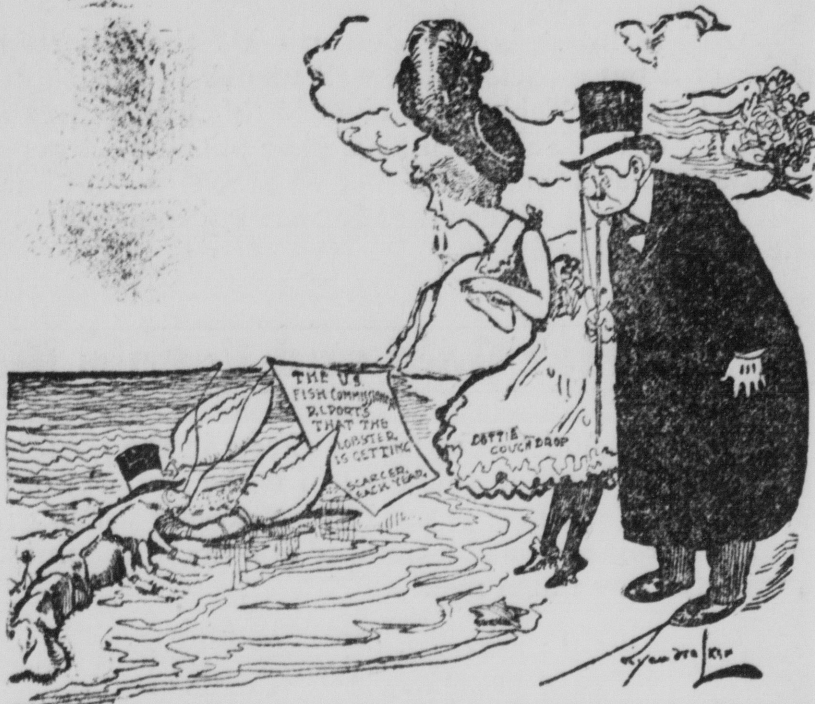

Healthy nerves are fat nerves. It is fat in the core of a nerve that by hardening and softening creates nerve action.

Maybe this explains why Scott's Emulsion has always been such a remarkable remedy for nervousness.

house last Friday, when he bitterly assailed Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefoot and criticised the official preparations for the reception of Prince Henry, had a sequel in the house yesterday, during the debate on the Indian appropriation bill. Mr. Gillet, of Massachusetts, in a half hour's speech, declared that the intemperance of Mr. Wheeler's language carried its own condemnation. Nevertheless, he (Gillet) grievously deplored such an affront to a foreign country. During the course of the speech two Democrats—Robinson, of Indiana, and Thayer, of Massachusetts, disclaimed any sympathy with Mr. Wheeler's utterances. These disclaimers drew from Mr. Talbert, of South Carolina, the statement that he desired to share in the responsibility of the speech, every word of which he said he endorsed. Mr. Wheeler himself subsequently replied to Mr. Gillet, reaffirming what he had said, and declaring that he would stand by his words whether they were discreet or not. He read a number of letters, telegrams and one cablegram from London, commending his utterances. The incident was the feature of the day.

Earlier in the session Mr. Hill, of Connecticut, and Mr. Shaffroth, of Colorado, discussed the former's bill to redeem silver in gold. Mr. Burleson, of Texas, criticised the president for changing his position on trusts. Other speakers were Messrs. Reid (Dem., Ark.), Sutherland (Rep., Utah), Padgett (Dem., Tenn.), Pou (Dem., N. C.) and Robinson (Dem. Ind.).

The Indian bill itself was not touched in the speech-making.

TO PUT DOWN WAR.

Taft Said Commission Proposed to Do All It Could.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Governor Taft, of the Philippines, yesterday continued his testimony before the senate committee on the Philippines. He said, in part, that it became evident that the Filipino junta was preparing to locate in that city, making that point the center for their propaganda. General Wright was therefore directed to prepare a law on this subject, and had done so. The denunciation of secret societies had been inserted, he said, because they had been made the chief instrument of agitation against the United States. If the people understood the question there would be no objection to peaceable agitation, but under the circumstances the commission had felt that "the suspension of the right to advocate independence was not such a deprivation of the right of free speech as could not be justified by the presence of war, when for the benefit of the whole people it should be suppressed." At least one of the societies had for one of its main purposes assassination, being thus like the Mafia.

Replying to a question from Senator Patterson as to whether it was the intention to go further in this direction, Governor Taft replied:

"We propose to do all that we can do that is known to civilized nations to put down this war, which is such a great injury to the Philippine people." He said he had not given personal attention to the phraseology of the sedition laws, and he had no doubt that when peace should be restored section 10 would be repealed.

VOTE MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Time Set For Philippine Bill—Wellington Made a Speech.

Washington, Feb. 19.—It was agreed in the senate yesterday that a final vote on the Philippine tariff bill and the pending amendments should be taken next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The only stipulation made by the minority was that the last day's debate should be devoted to speeches not exceeding 15 minutes in duration. Senator Wellington, of Maryland, spoke yesterday in opposition to the pending bill, and Senator Stewart, of Nevada, in support of the measure.

Mr. Wellington's address covered the Philippine question generally. He set forth his well-known views forcefully. He always had been a Republican, he said, a believer in the system of protection, and a supporter of a gold standard of currency, but he had come to the parting of the ways with his party in 1898, when it developed "its imperialistic tendency." He opposed the pending tariff bill because he did not think congress had the right to enact legislation by which people were taxed without representation and governed without their consent.

Mr. Stewart made a brief legal and constitutional argument in support of the authority of congress to hold the Philippines and to provide a proper government for their inhabitants.

A Postmaster Absconded.

Toledo, O., Feb. 19.—A special to The Times from Bellevue says: Postmaster Hamilton Schuyler, of this city, has absconded and it is alleged he is short several thousand dollars in his accounts. He drew $900 of postoffice funds from the First National bank in this city Saturday afternoon and left town Saturday night. Postoffice Inspector Moore is inspecting the office and has placed T. H. Malland in charge of the office. Bucket shop speculation in Toledo is said to be the cause of his downfall.

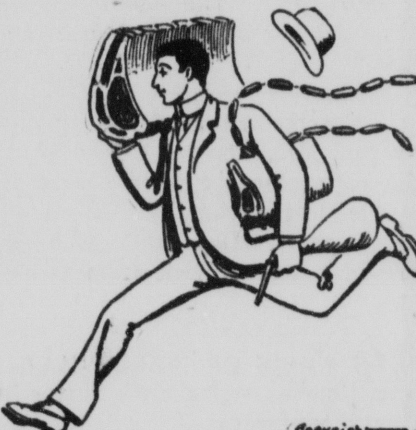

Charles L. Tiffany Dead.

New York, Feb. 19.—Charles L. Tiffany, senior member of the jewelry firm of Tiffany & Co., died at his home in this city of pneumonia. He was 90 years old. He had been ill only a few days, but had been kept to his home for some time as a consequence of a fall on Oct. 6, when he seriously injured his hip.

Anti-Trust Bill Defeated.

GETTING AWAY WITH MUCH MEAT?

How much is it costing? That wouldn't be any business of ours if we didn't know that we can save consumers of meat a nice little sum in the course of a year.

OUR BEEF AND LAMB is not the wild western meat that is hard to cut and still harder to digest. It is young, tender, toothsome and wholesome.

MISS STONE IS FREE.

Dragoman of American
Legation.

REV. TSILKA WAS ARRESTED.

Accused of Complicity In the Kidnap-
ing of Miss Stone—Husband of the Woman Taken Captive With American Missionary.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The Temps last evening published a dispatch from Constantinople which announces that Miss Ellen M. Stone has been released by the brigands who have held her captive since Sept. 3 last, and has been handed over, in good health, to the dragoman of the American legation.

The dispatch adds that the "Reverend Tsilka" has been arrested on the charge of complicity in the kidnapping of Miss Stone.

The companion in captivity of Miss Stone was Madame K. S. Tsilka, a Bulgarian woman, wife of Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian teacher of Samakov. Miss Stone, while traveling with Madame Tsilka and a party of about 15 friends, was captured by brigands in the district of Salonica, Sept. 3. Since that time vigorous efforts have been made by the United States government and by missionaries to obtain the release of the captives. The brigands demanded a ransom of £25,000 (Turkish), but only $72,500 was collected for the ransom, and this sum was paid over to the brigands Feb. 6 by M. Gargiulo, chief dragoman of the American legation at Constantinople, and W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American mission at Constantinople, who met the brigands on the road to the Podmore monastery.

Madame Tsilka was educated at the Northfield seminary. At the time of receiving her American training and education she was Miss Stephano, a Bulgarian. Having been converted in childhood to the Christian belief, she came to America, after having refused to marry the man of her parents' choosing. Dr. Dwight L. Moody, becoming interested in her welfare, found a place for her in his noted school. Having finished her training at that institution, she became a trained nurse. While engaged in her professional duties, in the Adirondacks, she became acquainted with Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian, who had also been educated in the United States. At that period he was preparing for work as a medical missionary. Soon after the completion of their training the couple were married and went to Bulgaria, where they at once entered upon missionary work.

Miss Stone is one of the missionaries of the American board of foreign missions. She has been attached to the Salonica mission since 1878. She was born in Roxbury, Mass., and her home is in Chelsea, Mass., where her mother resides.

REPUDIATED WHEELER'S TALK.

Two Democrats Did In House—A South Carolinian Said He Endorsed It All.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The speech of Mr. Wheeler, of Kentucky, in the

FAT NERVES.

A whirl of excitement was recently caused among scientists by the discovery of "how nerves act".

Healthy nerves are fat nerves. It is fat in the core of a nerve that by hardening and softening creates nerve action.

Maybe this explains why Scott's Emulsion has always been such a remarkable remedy for nervousness.

Scott's Emulsion makes fat nerves. It feeds them with fat. Good for all forms of nervousness and for neuralgia.

A DISTRESSING PROSPECT.

—St. Louis Republic.

house last Friday, when he bitterly assailed Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefoot and criticised the official preparations for the reception of Prince Henry, had a sequel in the house yesterday, during the debate on the Indian appropriation bill. Mr. Gillet, of Massachusetts, in a half hour's speech, declared that the intemperance of Mr. Wheeler's language carried its own condemnation. Nevertheless, he (Gillet) grievously deplored such an affront to a foreign country. During the course of the speech two Democrats—Robinson, of Indiana, and Thayer, of Massachusetts, disclaimed any sympathy with Mr. Wheeler's utterances. These disclaimers drew from Mr. Talbot, of South Carolina, the statement that he desired to share in the responsibility of the speech, every word of which he said he endorsed. Mr. Wheeler himself subsequently replied to Mr. Gillet, reaffirming what he had said, and declaring that he would stand by his words whether they were discreet or not. He read a number of letters, telegrams and one cablegram from London, commending his utterances. The incident was the feature of the day.

Earlier in the session Mr. Hill, of Connecticut, and Mr. Shaffroth, of Colorado, discussed the former's bill to redeem silver in gold. Mr. Burleson, of Texas, criticised the president for changing his position on trusts. Other speakers were Messrs. Reid (Dem., Ark.), Sutherland (Rep., Utah), Padgett (Dem., Tenn.), Pou (Dem., N. C.) and Robinson (Dem., Ind.).

The Indian bill itself was not touched in the speech-making.

TO PUT DOWN WAR.

Taft Said Commission Proposed to Do All It Could.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Governor Taft, of the Philippines, yesterday continued his testimony before the senate committee on the Philippines. He said, in part, that it became evident that the Filipino junta was preparing to locate in that city, making that point the center for their propaganda. General Wright was therefore directed to prepare a law on this subject, and had done so. The denunciation of secret societies had been inserted, he said, because they had been made the chief instrument of agitation against the United States. If the people understood the question there would be no objection to peaceable agitation, but under the circumstances the commission had felt that "the suspension of the right to advocate independence was not such a deprivation of the right of free speech as could not be justified by the presence of war, when for the benefit of the whole people it should be suppressed." At least one of the societies had for one of its main purposes assassination, being thus like the Mafia.

Replying to a question from Senator Patterson as to whether it was the intention to go further in this direction, Governor Taft replied:

"We propose to do all that we can do that is known to civilized nations to put down this war, which is such a great injury to the Philippine people." He said he had not given personal attention to the phraseology of the sedition laws, and he had no doubt that when peace should be restored section 10 would be repealed.

VOTE MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Time Set For Philippine Bill—Wellington Made a Speech.

Washington, Feb. 19.—It was agreed in the senate yesterday that a final vote on the Philippine tariff bill and the pending amendments should be taken next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The only stipulation made by the minority was that the last day's debate should be devoted to speeches not exceeding 15 minutes in duration. Senator Wellington, of Maryland, spoke yesterday in opposition to the pending bill, and Senator Stewart, of Nevada, in support of the measure.

Mr. Wellington's address covered the Philippine question generally. He set forth his well-known views forcefully. He always had been a Republican, he said, a believer in the system of protection, and a supporter of a gold standard of currency, but he had come to the parting of the ways with his party in 1898, when it developed "its imperialistic tendency." He opposed the pending tariff bill because he did not think congress had the right to enact legislation by which people were taxed without representation and governed without their consent.

Mr. Stewart made a brief legal and constitutional argument in support of the authority of congress to hold the Philippines and to provide a proper government for their inhabitants.

A Postmaster Absconded.

Toledo, O., Feb. 19.—A special to The Times from Bellevue says: Postmaster Hamilton Schuyler, of this city, has absconded and it is alleged he is short several thousand dollars in his accounts. He drew $900 of postoffice funds from the First National bank in this city Saturday afternoon and left town Saturday night. Postoffice Inspector Moore is inspecting the office and has placed T. H. Mallard in charge of the office. Bucket shop speculation in Toledo is said to be the cause of his downfall.

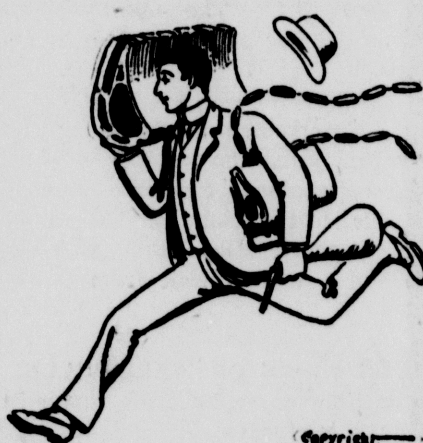

Charles L. Tiffany Dead.

New York, Feb. 19.—Charles L. Tiffany, senior member of the jewelry firm of Tiffany & Co., died at his home in this city of pneumonia. He was 90 years old. He had been ill only a few days, but had been kept to his home for some time as a consequence of a fall on Oct. 6, when he seriously injured his hip.

Anti-Trust Bill Defeated.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 19.—The house of delegates, by a tie vote, defeated, for want of a constitutional majority, the bill to prevent trusts from transacting business in the state of Maryland. The bill is similar in its provisions to the law now in force in Texas.

MISS STONE IS FREE.

Dragoman of American
Legation.

REV. TSILKA WAS ARRESTED.

Accused of Complicity In the Kidnap-
ing of Miss Stone—Husband of the Woman Taken Captive With American Missionary.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The Temps last evening published a dispatch from Constantinople which announces that Miss Ellen M. Stone has been released by the brigands who have held her captive since Sept. 3 last, and has been handed over, in good health, to the dragoman of the American legation.

The dispatch adds that the "Reverend Tsilka" has been arrested on the charge of complicity in the kidnapping of Miss Stone.

The companion in captivity of Miss Stone was Madame K. S. Tsilka, a Bulgarian woman, wife of Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian teacher of Samakov. Miss Stone, while traveling with Madame Tsilka and a party of about 15 friends, was captured by brigands in the district of Salonica, Sept. 3. Since that time vigorous efforts have been made by the United States government and by missionaries to obtain the release of the captives. The brigands demanded a ransom of $25,000 (Turkish), but only $72,500 was collected for the ransom, and this sum was paid over to the brigands Feb. 6 by M. Gargiulo, chief dragoman of the American mission at Constantinople, and W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American mission at Constantinople, who met the brigands on the road to the Podrome monastery.

Madame Tsilka was educated at the Northfield seminary. At the time of receiving her American training and education she was Miss Stephanora, a Bulgarian. Having been converted in childhood to the Christian belief, she came to America, after having refused to marry the man of her parents' choosing. Dr. Dwight L. Moody, becoming interested in her welfare, found a place for her in his noted school. Having finished her training at that institution, she became a trained nurse. While engaged in her professional duties, in the Adirondacks, she became acquainted with Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian, who had also been educated in the United States. At that period he was preparing for work as a medical missionary. Soon after the completion of their training the couple were married and went to Bulgaria, where they at once entered upon missionary work.

Miss Stone is one of the missionaries of the American board of foreign missions. She has been attached to the Salonica mission since 1878. She was born in Roxbury, Mass., and her home is in Chelsea, Mass., where her mother resides.

REPUDIATED WHEELER'S TALK.

Two Democrats Did In House—A South Carolinian Said He Endorsed It All.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The speech of Mr. Wheeler, of Kentucky, in the

FAT NERVES.

A whirl of excitement was recently caused among scientists by the discovery of "how nerves act".

Healthy nerves are fat nerves. It is fat in the core of a nerve that by hardening and softening creates nerve action.

Maybe this explains why Scott's Emulsion has always been such a remarkable remedy for nervousness.

Scott's Emulsion makes fat nerves. It feeds them with fat. Good for all forms of nervousness and for neuralgia.

A DISTRESSING PROSPECT.

—St. Louis Republic.

house last Friday, when he bitterly assailed Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefoot and criticised the official preparations for the reception of Prince Henry, had a sequel in the house yesterday, during the debate on the Indian appropriation bill. Mr. Gillet, of Massachusetts, in a half hour's speech, declared that the intemperance of Mr. Wheeler's language carried its own condemnation. Nevertheless, he (Gillet) grievously deplored such an affront to a foreign country. During the course of the speech two Democrats—Robinson, of Indiana, and Thayer, of Massachusetts, disclaimed any sympathy with Mr. Wheeler's utterances. These disclaimers drew from Mr. Talbot, of South Carolina, the statement that he desired to share in the responsibility of the speech, every word of which he said he endorsed. Mr. Wheeler himself subsequently replied to Mr. Gillet, reaffirming what he had said, and declaring that he would stand by his words whether they were discreet or not. He read a number of letters, telegrams and one cablegram from London, commending his utterances. The incident was the feature of the day.

Earlier in the session Mr. Hill, of Connecticut, and Mr. Shaffroth, of Colorado, discussed the former's bill to redeem silver in gold. Mr. Burleson, of Texas, criticised the president for changing his position on trusts. Other speakers were Messrs. Reid (Dem., Ark.), Sutherland (Rep., Utah), Padgett (Dem., Tenn.), Pou (Dem., N. C.) and Robinson (Dem., Ind.).

The Indian bill itself was not touched in the speech-making.

TO PUT DOWN WAR.

Do All It Could.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Governor Taft, of the Philippines, yesterday continued his testimony before the senate committee on the Philippines. He said, in part, that it became evident that the Filipino junta was preparing to locate in that city, making that point the center for their propaganda. General Wright was therefore directed to prepare a law on this subject, and had done so. The denunciation of secret societies had been inserted, he said, because they had been made the chief instrument of agitation against the United States. If the people understood the question there would be no objection to peaceable agitation, but under the circumstances the commission had felt that "the suspension of the right to advocate independence was not such a deprivation of the right of free speech as could not be justified by the presence of war, when for the benefit of the whole people it should be suppressed." At least one of the societies had for one of its main purposes assassination, being thus like the Mafia.

Replying to a question from Senator Patterson as to whether it was the intention to go further in this direction, Governor Taft replied:

"We propose to do all that we can do that is known to civilized nations to put down this war, which is such a great injury to the Philippine people." He said he had not given personal attention to the phraseology of the sedition laws, and he had no doubt that when peace should be restored section 10 would be repealed.

VOTE MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Time Set For Philippine Bill—Wellington Made a Speech.

Washington, Feb. 19.—It was agreed in the senate yesterday that a final vote on the Philippine tariff bill and the pending amendments should be taken next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The only stipulation made by the minority was that the last day's debate should be devoted to speeches not exceeding 15 minutes in duration. Senator Wellington, of Maryland, spoke yesterday in opposition to the pending bill, and Senator Stewart, of Nevada, in support of the measure.

Mr. Wellington's address covered the Philippine question generally. He set forth his well-known views forcefully. He always had been a Republican, he said, a believer in the system of protection, and a supporter of a gold standard of currency, but he had come to the parting of the ways with his party in 1898, when it developed "its imperialistic tendency." He opposed the pending tariff bill because he did not think congress had the right to enact legislation by which people were taxed without representation and governed without their consent.

Mr. Stewart made a brief legal and constitutional argument in support of the authority of congress to hold the Philippines and to provide a proper government for their inhabitants.

A Postmaster Absconded.

Toledo, O., Feb. 19.—A special to The Times from Bellevue says: Postmaster Hamilton Schuyler, of this city, has absconded and it is alleged he is short several thousand dollars in his accounts. He drew $900 of postoffice funds from the First National bank in this city Saturday afternoon and left town Saturday night. Postoffice Inspector Moore is inspecting the office and has placed T. H. Mallard in charge of the office. Bucket shop speculation in Toledo is said to be the cause of his downfall.

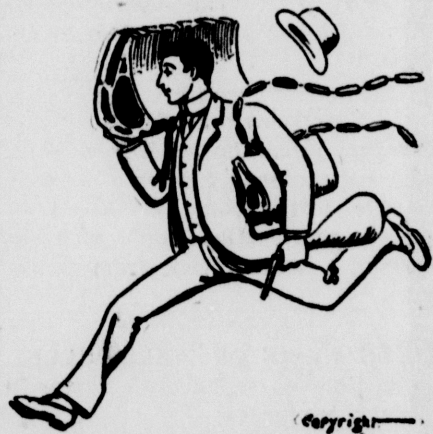

Charles L. Tiffany Dead.

New York, Feb. 19.—Charles L. Tiffany, senior member of the jewelry firm of Tiffany & Co., died at his home in this city of pneumonia. He was 90 years old. He had been ill only a few days, but had been kept to his home for some time as a consequence of a fall on Oct. 6, when he seriously injured his hip.

Anti-Trust Bill Defeated.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 19.—The house of delegates, by a tie vote, defeated, for want of a constitutional majority, the bill to prevent trusts from transacting business in the state of Maryland. The bill is similar in its provisions to the law now in force in Texas.

HOME STUDY COURSE

EDITED BY

E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS
LL.D.

The National Period of American Literature

BY LORENZO SEARS, LIT. D.,
Professor of American Literature in Brown University.

There was no such absorbing motive in the closing period of the eighteenth century were not equalled by other contemporary literature.

The verse which accompanied it was exceptional, too, but not in the same way. All ballads were of course inspired by patriotic or loyalist sentiments. Even when John Trumbull's long poem, "McFingal," appeared, it could be referred to the same kind of inspiration. Still the channel in which the devotion of the youthful versemaker flowed was inevitably narrowed by its prevailing satire. This was effective, as no one can deny, and by its mirth provoking sallies did good service for a good cause. It is not to so much purpose to inquire here who furnished the copy which he followed with greater or less fidelity as to know that the help furnished was not after the manner or in the degree of the aid lent by the political prose of the day.

Nothing but the controversy which had its participants on both sides, in England as well as in America, could have carried this mock heroic performance through several editions. Besides the literary taste of the time in poetics was not far above this level. We can be grateful to the author for winning supporters whom statesmen could not reach without calling him an eminent poet.

However, he did not aspire to write an epic, as two of his contemporaries did. But they had their sense of obligation as citizens and men of letters in the young America that had just been released from old England. A new and free nation of almost boundless expanse, with limitless prospects and high hopes, it was urged, should have a commensurate literature or the beginning of it at least. A patriotic aspiration of this kind must have impelled Timothy Dwight, president of Yale college, to undertake in 1785 his "Conquest of Canaan," the first American epic, as the author himself calls it. The resemblance it bears to those which had preceded it, notably the "Iliad" and "Paradise Lost," consists largely in the antiquity of the subject. Differences must be explained by saying that Homer and Milton were born to be poets, as the American was born to be a college president and a diligent and persevering versifier. Genius is not always the faculty of taking pains. If it were, the "Conquest of Canaan" would not have perished in a hundred years. Nevertheless it is worth reading—some of it. Biblical students will be pleased to note what side lights can be thrown upon the sacred story by a poetic imagination if they read as far as the eleventh book. The crookedness of Haniel, the loves of Irad and Selima, of Elam and Mina, the ghost of Herzon, the prowess of Jabin, the valor of Zimri, are for the modern reader what the miracle and mystery plays were to the dark ages. Modern battlefields and Revolutionary generals are somewhat belated actors, but the heroes just returned from Monmouth and Yorktown did not object to being in company with Caleb and Joshua. They knew their Bibles as well as their descendants knew a Sunday newspaper, and they understood a Scriptural allusion or an Old Testament hero a great deal better. And as for the versification, the rhymes of Dwight were as good in their esteem as Pope's translation of the "Iliad" and his characters not inferior to Milton's in their Biblical derivation. It was a book for the age by a counselor of statesmen and a theologian. He, if any one, could meet the demands of the youthful nation for an epic of its own. Moreover, a note of progress might be discerned from one to the other of the three epics, and a humanistic element could be found in the "Conquest" which was not in the "Iliad" or in "Paradise Lost." Even the oratory of the Argive leaders or that of Satan himself is at least recalled by Caleb's address to the assembled host.

Our great and greater grandfathers reveled in this and were not ashamed to liken it to the Homer of Pope and to the verse of Milton. The antilimex was reached when Joel Barlow wrote his "Vision of Columbus," afterward developed into the "Columbiad." The very title was sublimated American, and the poem was regarded as a "tremendous epic" in its day. With mitigated modesty the writer declares that he shall not try to prove that he has written an epic poem. Nevertheless he ranks the "Iliad" and the "Æneid" in the same class with his own "Columbiad," which he sends forth "with no other concern than what arises from the most pure and ardent desire of doing good to the country."

Barlow was a type of the cultivated and patriotic young American of his day. He belonged to the Dwight-Trumbull knot of young men in college who were the first to break away from the traditions of the elders and devote themselves to a study of outlander literature in the English classics. In vacations he shouldered a musket and fought bravely with the Massachusetts militia in the opening battles of the Revolution. His commencement part in 1778 was a poem on "The Prospect of Peace," hopeful, enthusiastic, expansive, prophetic.

As there was a shortage of chaplains in the army, the young law student crammed himself with enough divinity in six weeks for war purposes and with his friend Dwight went in and out among the troops, animating and encouraging them by patriotic addresses and odes. Turning editor—and doctor of Watts' version of the psalms to make them fit the regnant theology—he meditated and composed by turns the "Vision," which was received with applause by friends and reprinted in London and Paris. It anticipated by a year the one-sided philanthropy and erratic enthusiasm of the French revolution, and in consequence the author was welcome when he arrived in France to give his "Advice to Privileged Orders" and follow it with his poem on the "Conspiracy of Kings."

The design of Barlow's masterpiece, "The Columbiad," evolved from "The Vision," was to give a historical view of events from the time of Columbus to that of Washington as foreseen by the great discoverer from his prison. Conducted by Hesper to the mount of vision, he takes a long lesson in American geography and the history of Mexico and Peru. The story of colonization by Raleigh and others follows, preparing the way for the old French and the Revolutionary wars. Officers in the latter are thus signaled:

Here stood stern Putnam, scored with ancient scars,
The living record of his country's wars;
Wayne, like a moving tower, assumes his post,
Fires the whole field and is himself a host.
Bland, Moyland, Sheldon, the long lines enforce
With light arm'd scouts, with solid squares of horse,
And Knox from his full park to battle brings
His brazen tubes, the last resort of kings,
When at his word the carbon cloud shall rise
And well aimed-thunders rock the shores and skies.

It was in this post revolution period that the first intimation of a submerged dramatic tendency bubbled up to the surface from the ooze where it was sunk 150 years before. Puritan laws and frowns had kept it out of sight and hearing thus far. Hospitable Virginia had allowed the "Merchant of Venice" to be acted by professionals in Williamsburg as early as 1752, and Farquhar's "The Recruiting Officer" was played the same year in the first American theater at Annapolis, Md., which was followed by the second in New York the next year and another in Philadelphia six years later. But in Massachusetts previous to 1792 players appeared on the stage at the risk of arrest. Only in unorthodox Rhode Island and under the patronage of planters who came to Newport were they safe within the bounds of New England. As early as 1765 Thomas Godfrey of Philadelphia had peeped in a closet drama entitled "The Prince of Parthia," but Royall Tyler of New York was the first domestic playwright to put a piece upon the stage. He called it the "Contrast," possibly with reference to the change in public sentiment since Massachusetts enacted an ordinance, in imitation of Cromwell's parliament in 1642, abolishing theaters. This act was annulled in England 14 years later, but here there was no relenting until 170 years after the pilgrims came to Plymouth. Under such regime not much could be expected of American dramatic talent. When at length it dared to appear on the boards, it seemed not to the manner born. The tragedy was high enough and the comedy low enough, but the Elizabethan dramatist or even the restoration playwright had not accompanied the star of empire westward. Have they yet arrived?

Still there were homemade plays which pleased provincials by their local color and hits, and as good a beginning was made as could be expected in a climate which ranged from temperate to frigid in the matter of dramatics. What was there of tragedy representation when the genuine article could be had by standing in front of the meeting house near the whipping post, stocks and pillory or by climbing the hill where the gallows loomed stark against a wintry sky? And as for comedy, it might be had whenever a pirate crew was brought ashore or a knot of witches convicted. The Puritan

Columbus, O., Feb. 19.—Reports are current in local coal and railroad circles of the organization of a new coal company by the Morgan syndicate to acquire 15 independent coal mines on the Hocking Valley and Ohio Central railroads. The new company, it is said, is to be known as the Continental Coal company, and the capitalization will be $15,000,000. The new combine will include all the mining properties in the Hocking and Sandy Creek valleys, with the exception of the new Pittsburg and Glendale mines, which have been acquired by the Pittsburg coal combine. There is a probability that the larger mines on the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking railroad may also be included in the deal.

According to a local operator the action of the Morgan syndicate is forced by the Pittsburg combine's invasion of the Hocking Valley field. Options were secured on many of the Hocking mines by the Morgan syndicate some time ago, but were allowed to lapse. The Pittsburg combine's purchases have been made since that time. It is said that all the Morgan syndicate's coal properties will be merged with the independent mines under the Continental company and that they will all be under one management, thus greatly reducing the expense of operation.

boy was not without his diversions. For awhile he had no need of theater or circus. When, however, his primitive entertainments went out of fashion, it was unfair to expect counterfeits to take their place all at once or to be satisfactory. Had not everything fictitious been sternly forbidden and painfully discouraged? Accordingly the early American drama should not be scrutinized too sharply.

Tyler, Dunlap and Payne made the best beginning they could with such plays as "May Day in New York," "The Father of an Only Child," "Brutus" and "Theresa," all of which were appreciated at home and some in London. Dunlap's interlude of "Danby's Return" drew unusual laughter from the grave Washington, and sympathetic merriment from all who were watching to see how he would take an allusion to himself. But no one unearths these old provincial tragedies and comedies for present reading, and a company which should venture to reproduce them would not undertake their repetition a second night.

RESTRICTIVE INFLUENCE LIFTED

From Trading, Tuesday — Volume Only About Half Million Shares.

New York, Feb. 19.—The restrictive influence upon trading of Monday's storm was lifted Tuesday, yet the volume of trading was only about half a million shares. There was some show of strength during the morning hours, but it dwindled during the day and the market generally turned downward. Some stocks which had the advantage of early advances did not suffer materially on the day, but the general level of prices at the end was lower than Tuesday. The disinclination to trade in the stocks of the great railroad systems, especially those of the trans-continental group, was very marked. It might have been due to the efforts making for a revision of trans-continental freight rates, or it might be explained by the growing inclination to await next Monday's session of the supreme court and a possible decision in the Northern Securities case before venturing upon speculative commitments in this group of stocks, which have so much at stake in the decision of that case. Speculative opinion is in a perplexed state as to the merits of the Metropolitan Street Railway plan. The machinery of the plan is so complicated and the bearings of its operation so obscure that little can be made of it, and the general public is inclined to look askance at the securities involved. The interests of insiders in supporting the price of the stock pending the completion of the plan is obvious, but the price ran off more than a point in the late deal.

TOLD IN EAST LIVERPOOL

It's the Evidence of E. Liverpool People Published In East Liverpool Papers That Has Made Such Reputation For Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments, is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known. It is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of nerve force. Mrs. C. L. Yager, of No. 152 Broadway, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines are all good. I got them at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, as I was nervous, run down, felt miserable and the heart action was weak and irregular. The medicine made me strong and my nerves steady, the heart action strong and altogether a different person, as I feel well and hearty again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS
LL.D.

The National Period of American Literature

BY LORENZO SEARS, LL.D.,
Professor of American Literature in Brown University.

There was no such absorbing motive in other departments to give the unconsciousness of self in which the best results are produced. Few periods have had such an overpowering stimulus to intense yet logical exposition of privileges which are essential to constitutional liberty. The literature which resulted ought to have been and was exceptional prose.

The verse which accompanied it was exceptional, too, but not in the same way. All ballads were of course inspired by patriotic or loyalist sentiments. Even when John Trumbull's long poem, "McFingal," appeared, it could be referred to the same kind of inspiration. Still the channel in which the devotion of the youthful versemaker flowed was inevitably narrowed by its prevailing satire. This was effective, as no one can deny, and by its mirth provoking sallies did good service for a good cause. It is not to so much purpose to inquire here who furnished the copy which he followed with greater or less fidelity as to know that the help furnished was not after the manner or in the degree of the aid lent by the political prose of the day.

Nothing but the controversy which had its participants on both sides, in England as well as in America, could have carried this mock heroic performance through several editions. Besides the literary taste of the time in poetries was not far above this level. We can be grateful to the author for winning supporters whom statesmen could not reach without calling him an eminent poet.

However, he did not aspire to write an epic, as two of his contemporaries did. But they had their sense of obligation as citizens and men of letters in the young America that had just been released from old England. A new and free nation of almost boundless expanse, with limitless prospects and high hopes, it was urged, should have a commensurate literature or the beginning of it at least. A patriotic aspiration of this kind must have impelled Timothy Dwight, president of Yale college, to undertake in 1785 his "Conquest of Canaan," the first American epic, as the author himself calls it. The resemblance it bears to those which had preceded it, notably the "Iliad" and "Paradise Lost," consists largely in the antiquity of the subject. Differences must be explained by saying that Homer and Milton were born to be poets, as the American was born to be a college president and a diligent and persevering versifier. Genius is not always the faculty of taking pains. If it were, the "Conquest of Canaan" would not have perished in a hundred years. Nevertheless it is worth reading—some of it. Biblical students will be pleased to note what side lights can be thrown upon the sacred story by a poetic imagination if they read as far as the eleventh book. The crookedness of Hamiel, the loves of Irad and Selima, of Elam and Mina, the ghost of Herzon, the prowess of Jabin, the valor of Zimri, are for the modern reader what the miracle and mystery plays were to the dark ages. Modern battlefields and Revolutionary generals are somewhat belated actors, but the heroes just returned from Monmouth and Yorktown did not object to being in company with Caleb and Joshua. They knew their Bibles as well as their descendants knew a Sunday newspaper, and they understood a Scriptural allusion or an Old Testament hero a great deal better. And as for the versification, the rhymes of Dwight were as good in their esteem as Pope's translation of the "Iliad" and his characters not inferior to Milton's in their Biblical derivation. It was a book for the age by a counselor of statesmen and a theologian. He, if any one, could meet the demands of the youthful nation for an epic of its own. Moreover, a note of progress might be discerned from one to the other of the three epics, and a humanistic element could be found in the "Conquest" which was not in the "Iliad" or in "Paradise Lost." Even the oratory of the Argive leaders or that of Satan himself is at least recalled by Caleb's address to the assembled host.

Our great and greater grandfathers reveled in this and were not ashamed to liken it to the Homer of Pope and to the verse of Milton. The anticlimax was reached when Joel Barlow wrote his "Vision of Columbus," afterward developed into the "Columbiad." The very title was sublimated American, and the poem was regarded as a "tremendous epic" in its day. With mitigated modesty the writer declares that he shall not try to prove that he has written an epic poem. Nevertheless he ranks the "Iliad" and the "Æneid" in the same class with his own "Columbiad," which he sends forth "with no other concern than what arises from the most pure and ardent desire of doing good to the country."

Barlow was a type of the cultivated and patriotic young American of his day. He belonged to the Dwight-Trumbull knot of young men in college who were the first to break away from the traditions of the elders and devote themselves to a study of outland literature in the English classics. In vacations he shouldered a musket and fought bravely with the Massachusetts militia in the opening battles of the Revolution. His commencement part in 1778 was a poem on "The Prospect of Peace," hopeful, enthusiastic, expansive, prophetic.

As there was a shortage of chaplains in the army, the young law student crammed himself with enough divinity in six weeks for war purposes and with his friend Dwight went in and out among the troops, animating and encouraging them by patriotic addresses and odes. Turning editor—and doctor of Watts' version of the psalms to make them fit the regnant theology—he meditated and composed by turns the "Vision," which was received with applause by friends and reprinted in London and Paris. It anticipated by a year the one sided philanthropy and erratic enthusiasm of the French revolution, and in consequence the author was welcome when he arrived in France to give his "Advice to Privileged Orders" and follow it with his poem on the "Conspiracy of Kings."

Puritan laws and frowns had kept it out of sight and hearing thus far. The interests of insiders in supporting the price of the stock pending the completion of the plan is obvious, but the price ran off more than a point in the late dealings Tuesday. This had a deterrent influence on speculation elsewhere. The same was true of the weakness of Amalgamated Copper, which lost 2% on the day's dealings. The futility of the efforts to advance Southern Pacific and Sugar were additional influences in the same direction. There was buying to some effect among the coalers, which was especially conspicuous in Reading second preferred and New York, Ontario and Western. Lackawanna made a spurt of 6 points, but reacted 4. Profitable demands upon the coal companies are said to be more than they can supply, and there are surmises also of proposed further consolidation of the ownership of these roads. Another group which was active and strong was the Southwest-erns, in spite of decreases in gross earnings for the second week in February reported by one or two members of the group. The closing was irregular, but there were only slight rallies.

Wabash debenture Bs constituted the bulk of the bond market, but they lost practically all of their gains. Total sales, par value, $5,300,000.

HOME STUDY COURSE

EDITED BY

E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS LL.D.

Professor of American Literature in Brown University.

II.—Epics and Dramas.

THE writings of statesmen in the closing period of the eighteenth century were not equalled by other contemporary literature.

There was no such absorbing motive in other departments to give the unconsciousness of self in which the best results are produced. Few periods have had such an overpowering stimulus to intense yet logical exposition of privileges which are essential to constitutional liberty. The literature which resulted ought to have been and was exceptional prose.

The verse which accompanied it was exceptional, too, but not in the same way. All ballads were of course inspired by patriotic or loyalist sentiments. Even when John Trumbull's long poem, "McFingal," appeared, it could be referred to the same kind of inspiration. Still the channel in which the devotion of the youthful versemaker flowed was inevitably narrowed by its prevailing satire. This was effective, as no one can deny, and by its mirth provoking sallies did good service for a good cause. It is not to so much purpose to inquire here who furnished the copy which he followed with greater or less fidelity as to know that the help furnished was not after the manner or in the degree of the aid lent by the political prose of the day.

Nothing but the controversy which had its participants on both sides, in England as well as in America, could have carried this mock heroic performance through several editions. Besides the literary taste of the time in poetics was not far above this level. We can be grateful to the author for winning supporters whom statesmen could not reach without calling him an eminent poet.

However, he did not aspire to write an epic, as two of his contemporaries did. But they had their sense of obligation as citizens and men of letters in the young America that had just been released from old England. A new and free nation of almost boundless expanse, with limitless prospects and high hopes, it was urged, should have a commensurate literature or the beginning of it at least. A patriotic aspiration of this kind must have impelled Timothy Dwight, president of Yale college, to undertake in 1785 his "Conquest of Canaan," the first American epic, as the author himself calls it. The resemblance it bears to those which had preceded it, notably the "Iliad" and "Paradise Lost," consists largely in the antiquity of the subject. Differences must be explained by saying that Homer and Milton were born to be poets, as the American was born to be a college president and a diligent and persevering versifier. Genius is not always the faculty of taking pains. If it were, the "Conquest of Canaan" would not have perished in a hundred years. Nevertheless it is worth reading—some of it. Biblical students will be pleased to note what side lights can be thrown upon the sacred story by a poetic imagination if they read as far as the eleventh book. The crookedness of Haniel, the loves of Irad and Selima, of Elam and Mina, the ghost of Herzon, the prowess of Jabin, the valor of Zimri, are for the modern reader what the miracle and mystery plays were to the dark ages. The modern battlefields and Revolutionary generals are somewhat belated actors, but the heroes just returned from Monmouth and Yorktown did not object to being in company with Caleb and Joshua. They knew their Bibles as well as their descendants knew a Sunday newspaper, and they understood a Scriptural allusion or an Old Testament hero a great deal better. And as for the versification, the rhymes of Dwight were as good in their esteem as Pope's translation of the "Iliad" and his characters not inferior to Milton's in their Biblical derivation. It was a book for the age by a counselor of statesmen and a theologian. He, if any one, could meet the demands of the youthful nation for an epic of its own. Moreover, a note of progress might be discerned from one to the other of the three epics, and a humanistic element could be found in the "Conquest" which was not in the "Iliad" or in "Paradise Lost." Even the oratory of the Argive leaders or that of Satan himself is at least recalled by Caleb's address to the assembled host.

Our great and greater grandfathers reveled in this and were not ashamed to liken it to the Homer of Pope and to the verse of Milton. The anticlimax was reached when Joel Barlow wrote his "Vision of Columbus," afterward developed into the "Columbiad." The very title was sublimated American, and the poem was regarded as a "tremendous epic" in its day. With mitigated modesty the writer declares that he shall not try to prove that he has written an epic poem. Nevertheless he ranks the "Iliad" and the "Æneid" in the same class with his own "Columbiad," which he sends forth "with no other concern than what arises from the most pure and ardent desire of doing good to the country."

Barlow was a type of the cultivated and patriotic young American of his day. He belonged to the Dwight-Trumbull knot of young men in college who were the first to break away from the traditions of the elders and devote themselves to a study of outlander literature in the English classics. In vacations he shouldered a musket and fought bravely with the Massachusetts militia in the opening battles of the Revolution. His commencement part in 1778 was a poem on "The Prospect of Peace," hopeful, enthusiastic, expansive, prophetic.

As there was a shortage of chaplains in the army, the young law student crammed himself with enough divinity in six weeks for war purposes and with his friend Dwight went in and out among the troops, animating and encouraging them by patriotic addresses and odes. Turning editor—and doctor of Watts' version of the psalms to make them fit the regnant theology—he meditated and composed by turns the "Vision," which was received with applause by friends and reprinted in London and Paris. It anticipated by a year the one-sided philanthropy and erratic enthusiasm of the French revolution, and in consequence the author was welcome when he arrived in France to give his "Advice to Privileged Orders" and follow it with his poem on the "Conspiracy of Kings."

The design of Barlow's masterpiece, "The Columbiad," evolved from "The Vision," was to give a historical view of events from the time of Columbus to that of Washington as foreseen by the great discoverer from his prison. Conducted by Hesper to the mount of vision, he takes a long lesson in American geography and the history of Mexico and Peru. The story of colonization by Raleigh and others follows, preparing the way for the old French and the Revolutionary wars. Officers in the latter are thus signalized:

Here stood stern Putnam, scored with ancient scars,
The living record of his country's wars;
Wayne, like a moving tower, assumes his post,
Fires the whole field and is himself a host.
Bland, M'oyland, Sheldon, the long lines enforce
With light arm'd scouts, with solid squares of horse,
And Knox from his full park to battle brings
His brazen tubes, the last resort of kings.
When at his word the carbon cloud shall rise
And well aimed-thunders rock the shores and skies.

It was in this post revolution period that the first intimation of a submerged dramatic tendency bubbled up to the surface from the ooze where it was sunk 150 years before. Puritan laws and frowns had kept it out of sight and hearing thus far. Hospitable Virginia had allowed the "Merchant of Venice" to be acted by professionals in Williamsburg as early as 1752, and Farquhar's "Beaux's Stratagem" was played the same year in the first American theater at Annapolis, Md., which was followed by the second in New York the next year and another in Philadelphia six years later. But in Massachusetts previous to 1792 players appeared on the stage at the risk of arrest. Only in unorthodox Rhode Island and under the patronage of planters who came to Newport were they safe within the bounds of New England. As early as 1765 Thomas Godfrey of Philadelphia had peeped in a closet drama entitled "The Prince of Parthia," but Royall Tyler of New York was the first domestic playwright to put a piece upon the stage. He called it the "Contrast," possibly with reference to the change in public sentiment since Massachusetts enacted an ordinance, in imitation of Cromwell's parliament in 1642, abolishing theaters. This act was annulled in England 14 years later, but here there was no relenting until 170 years after the pilgrims came to Plymouth. Under such regime not much could be expected of American dramatic talent. When at length it dared to appear on the boards, it seemed not to the manner born. The tragedy was high enough and the comedy low enough, but the Elizabethan dramatist or even the restoration playwright had not accompanied the star of empire westward. Have they yet arrived?

Still there were homestead plays which pleased provincials by their local color and bits, and as good a beginning was made as could be expected in a climate which ranged from temperate to frigid in the matter of dramatics. What need was there of tragedy representation when the genuine article could be had by standing in front of the meeting house near the whipping post, stocks and pillory or by climbing the hill where the gallows loomed stark against a wintry sky? And as for comedy, it might be had whenever a pirate crew was brought ashore or a knot of witches convicted. The Puritan

NEW COAL COMBINE.

Reported a Company Is to Be Formed to Acquire Fifteen Mines in Ohio.

CAPITAL TO BE $15,000,000.

Morgan Syndicate Back of It—Mining Properties in Hocking and Sandy Creek Valleys, Except Those Under Pittsburg Combine Control.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19.—Reports are current in local coal and railroad circles of the organization of a new coal company by the Morgan syndicate to acquire 15 independent coal mines on the Hocking Valley and Ohio Central railroads. The new company, it is said, is to be known as the Continental Coal company, and the capitalization will be $15,000,000. The new combine will include all the mining properties in the Hocking and Sandy Creek valleys, with the exception of the new Pittsburg and Glendale mines, which have been acquired by the Pittsburg coal combine. There is a probability that the larger mines on the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking railroad may also be included in the deal.

According to a local operator the action of the Morgan syndicate is forced by the Pittsburg combine's invasion of the Hocking Valley field. Options were secured on many of the Hocking mines by the Morgan syndicate some time ago, but were allowed to lapse. The Pittsburg combine's purchases have been made since that time. It is said that all the Morgan syndicate's coal properties will be merged with the independent mines under the Continental company and that they will all be under one management, thus greatly reducing the expense of operation.

boy was not without his diversions. For awhile he had no need of theater or circus. When, however, his primitive entertainments went out of fashion, it was unfair to expect counterfeits to take their place all at once or to be satisfactory. Had not everything fictitious been sternly forbidden and painfully discouraged? Accordingly the early American drama should not be scrutinized too sharply.

Tyler, Dunlap and Payne made the best beginning they could with such plays as "May Day in New York," "The Father of an Only Child," "Bretus" and "Theresa," all of which were appreciated at home and some in London. Dunlap's interlude of "Danby's Return" drew unusual laughter from the grave Washington, and sympathetic merriment from all who were watching to see how he would take an allusion to himself. But no one unearths these old provincial tragedies and comedies for present reading, and a company which should venture to reproduce them would not undertake their repetition a second night.

RESTRICTIVE INFLUENCE LIFTED

From Trading, Tuesday — Volume Only About Half Million Shares.

New York, Feb. 19.—The restrictive influence upon trading of Monday's storm was lifted Tuesday, yet the volume of trading was only about half a million shares. There was some show of strength during the morning hours, but it dwindled during the day and the market generally turned downward. Some stocks which had the advantage of early advances did not suffer materially on the day, but the general level of prices at the end was lower than Tuesday. The disinclination to trade in the stocks of the great railroad systems, especially those of the trans-continental group, was very marked. It might have been due to the efforts making for a revision of trans-continental freight rates, or it might be explained by the growing inclination to await next Monday's session of the supreme court and a possible decision in the Northern Securities case before venturing upon speculative commitments in this group of stocks, which have so much at stake in the decision of that case. Speculative opinion is in a perplexed state as to the merits of the Metropolitan Street Railway plan. The machinery of the plan is so complicated and the bearings of its operation so obscure that little can be made of it, and the general public is inclined to look askance at the securities involved. The interests of insiders in supporting the price of the stock pending the completion of the plan is obvious, but the price ran off more than a point in the late deal-

TOLD IN EAST LIVERPOOL

It's the Evidence of E. Liverpool People Published in East Liverpool Papers That Has Made Such a Reputation For Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments, is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known. It is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of nerve force. Mrs. C. L. Yager, of No. 152 Broadway, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines are all good. I got them at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, as I was nervous, run down, felt miserable and the heart action was weak and irregular. The medicine made me strong and my nerves steady, the heart action strong and altogether a different person, as I feel well and hearty again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

VACANT LOTS—We have them everywhere, from the Pennsylvania line to the mouth of Yellow Creek; from the river to Calcutta; at prices commensurate with their location, size and conveniences. It matters not what locality, street, addition or allotment; you had better see what we have; get our prices and terms.

OTHER PROPERTIES—We have scores of them at any price, on any street, in any locality. Come in and see us about them; ordinary prudence and business caution should compel you to do this for we can give you price and values of properties in all parts of the city. We know of a lot of misguided folks who ignored the real estate dealer and consequently paid more for their properties than they were listed at in our office. Lots more are doing it every day. WHY CAN WE GIVE YOU A BETTER PRICE? Because we must, and because of our experience and knowledge of value of real estate.

TEST US—If we don't measure up, don't deal with us. There will be no hard feeling on our part. All we ask is to be allowed to consider your wants, quote our prices and show you our properties.

plumber who neglected to keep a promise of doing some work for her and forthwith proceeded to give him a "tearing out." Her remarks were cutting, and the object of her wrath looked pitiful to the many spectators.

Insurance Men's Union—As will be seen by a notice in the advertising columns, it will be observed that the Columbiana county insurance agents have organized to look after their interests and formulated important rules regulating charges, making them uniform. All East Liverpool agents are parties to the agreement and will have "union" cards posted in their offices.

All a Joke—The "theft" of George Morris' watch by Frank Dickey, although all a joke, as was explained yesterday, may be misunderstood. The mayor was also joking in what he said about the affair, and never intended his remarks to be taken seriously. The watch had been restored to its owner long before a gullible reporter for a so-called newspaper made a scare-head sensation of it.

He has served two years and nine months and his enlistment will expire May 23. He does not expect to be out of the hospital before that time.

Both Were Hard Looking and Were Ordered to Vamoose—One Plain Drunk.

Three victims appeared before the mayor this morning, two of which were the hardest looking individuals that have been in police court for months. One of them, William Keefe, a hobo, who hails from Altoona, Pa., walked with a cane and had scarcely enough clothing about his body to make a good patch.

Keefe was arrested yesterday at the C. & P. depot by Officer Aufdeheide. He was drunk and lounging in the seats and was taken to the jail in the patrol. A search of his pockets revealed but 35 cents. Owing to his crippled condition he was discharged on his promise to leave the city.

Henry Hardig, an itinerant German, was arrested last night by Patrolman Woods in the Buckeye pottery, where he was sleeping off a powerful jag. He was conveyed to jail in the patrol and when arraigned before the mayor this morning was covered with dirt and had his hat missing. He had no money and after being furnished with a boy's that fitted him much "too soon," was ordered to leave town.

Officers Dawson and Stafford arrested Vince Conkle yesterday afternoon on Broadway. He was drunk all over and was hauled to the bastille. He paid $5.60 this morning.

HAD TROUBLES

Both Were Hard Looking and Were Ordered to Vamoose—One Plain Drunk.

Three victims appeared before the mayor this morning, two of which were the hardest looking individuals that have been in police court for months. One of them, William Keefe, a hobo, who hails from Altoona, Pa., walked with a cane and had scarcely enough clothing about his body to make a good patch.

Keefe was arrested yesterday at the C. & P. depot by Officer Aufdeheide. He was drunk and lounging in the seats and was taken to the jail in the patrol. A search of his pockets revealed but 35 cents. Owing to his crippled condition he was discharged on his promise to leave the city.

Henry Hardig, an itinerant German, was arrested last night by Patrolman Woods in the Buckeye pottery, where he was sleeping off a powerful jag. He was conveyed to jail in the patrol and when arraigned before the mayor this morning was covered with dirt and his hat missing. He had no money and after being furnished with a boy's that fitted him much "too soon," was ordered to leave town.

Officers Dawson and Stafford arrested Vince Conkle yesterday afternoon on Broadway. He was drunk all over and was hauled to the bastille. He paid $5.60 this morning.

D. A. DEVINE, Prop

HON. R. W. TAYLER AT WORK TO GET RIVER IMPROVEMENT

He Calls Upon Postmaster Surles
For Statistics of Local Tonnage.

Liverpool of Water
Transportation.

NEW LOCK AND DAM HERE

If Present Plans Are Carried Out
Would Be a Matter of Great Importance—Favorable Action By Congress Expected.

Hon. R. W. Tayler, who is diligently at work to secure provision by the present congress for locks and dams for the improvement of the Ohio river, yesterday telegraphed Postmaster W. H. Surles as follows:

The postmaster promptly complied, sending the following telegram: "Inbound freight, 850,000 tons, including coal. Outbound freight, 275,000 tons."

These statistics the postmaster was able to supply at once, having gathered much data on the subject when the matter was before congress a year or two ago, and it was only necessary to go to the same sources and bring the figures up to date by giving those for 1901.

The improvement advocated by the government engineers and which congress has shown a disposition to encourage is one which shall make the whole Ohio river from its source to its mouth navigable the year around. Appropriation for such work has been made in the last few years, not in a lump sum, but on the continuing contract system, a sufficient amount being appropriated to keep the work going each year.

The proposed East-Liverpool dam, provided for in the house bill introduced in January, 1901, which failed to pass at the last session, is known as "movable dam No. 8," and its location is to be just below this city at Walker. For the completion of the lock, including purchase of site, an expenditure not exceeding $250,000 was proposed in the old bill. The total improvement, including lock, dam, etc., completed, is estimated to cost about $800,000.

It can readily be seen that such an expenditure here would vastly benefit the city while the improvement is in progress, to say nothing of the benefits to result to commerce and industry after the work is completed.

Those best posted on river interests are confident of securing from the present congress such legislation as will show appropriate recognition of the needs of the Ohio valley and of a disposition to hasten the completion of the whole great work.

Mr. Pollock's bill abolishes the office of road supervisor and instead a township commissioner is to be appointed by the trustees.

The petition is being circulated in Lisbon by Jacob Morrison.

MRS. G. S. GOODWIN HAS PASSED AWAY

A LONG ILLNESS.

She Was Prominent in Church,
Social And Charitable
Work Here.

Mrs. Josephine Goodwin, wife of George S. Goodwin, passed away peacefully at 5 o'clock this morning, after a lingering illness. Though her death had been expected for many weeks the sad intelligence came as a shock to a large circle of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Goodwin was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Bunting and was born at Hamilton, W. Va. In early childhood the family went to Wellsville. There she received her education at a private school conducted by Prof. Lafferty and later she attended Beaver college.

Besides having a liberal education, Mrs. Goodwin was endowed with an unusually bright intellect and in business affairs had very keen foresight and fine executive ability. She was fond of reading and kept well posted on current events and was an entertaining conversationalist. In her domestic affairs she was exceedingly practical and thorough and took the greatest pride in making her home delightfully attractive to her family and friends. As a hostess she was noted for her hospitality.

When 13 years of age she joined the Presbyterian church of Wellsville. After coming to this city she identified herself with the First Presbyterian church and was an active and efficient worker of the missionary society.

One of the strongest traits of her character was her thoughtfulness of others, particularly the aged and the afflicted. She was embodiment of kindness. She will be missed and mourned by a large number, to whom in a quiet and unostentatious way, she had been a benefactor, and her many kind deeds will be gratefully remembered. In disposition she was cheerful, and her genial nature won for her a host of friends, to whom she was always loyal. Her last illness was borne with Christian fortitude and she clearly expressed herself as being ready for the transition.

In the midst of a happy home life her early taking away is mourned not only by a devoted husband, her son and daughter, four brothers and four sisters, but a large circle of friends who regret her demise as a personal loss. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community. The funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the residence Fifth and Jackson. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. G. Jordan. The interment will be at Riverview cemetery.

It is evident the writer has been before Mayor Davidson, as in small letters, underneath the picture, is written: "A Saturday night's drunk $5 and costs."

It pays to advertise in a live newspaper. The News Review is alive, alert and progressive.

Elmer Mercer Taken to Salem to Answer to the Charge of Non-Support.

ANOTHER CHARGE IS MADE

Mrs. Mercer Alleges That He Has
Been Living Here With Another
Guilt And Makes Charges Also.

Marshal Charles Johnson, of Salem, arrived in this city this morning with a warrant for Elmer Mercer, who was arrested at his home on Calcutta road last evening by Officers Thompson and Dawson.

A telephone message was received from the Salem official yesterday by Chief Thompson, stating that Mercer's wife, who is at present in Salem, had filed an affidavit against him charging non-support of a minor child. The officers here were requested to apprehend him.

The allegation is made by Mrs. Mercer that her husband has been living here with another woman. He denies the charge and further claims he is not guilty of the charge of non-support. The couple have not been living together for some time and since their separation their child has been in charge of Mercer's sister.

It is alleged by the husband that his wife came here a few days ago and took the child to Salem. He says she caused his arrest simply for spite work. He will likely be given a trial tomorrow.

LOOKING AFTER LEASES

3,500 ACRES OF COAL.

Unfavorable Weather Has Delayed
the Starting of Test
Drills.

C. P. Rothwell, an extensive coal operator of East Palestine, arrived in Chester this morning and spent the day looking after the leases recently secured by him in this territory.

Mr. Rothwell now controls 3,500 acres of coal land just south of Chester, and it will be thoroughly developed within the next few months. Mr. Rothwell was questioned with reference to his intentions and said:

"Had the weather been at all favorable we would have had our drills at work long ago making tests. The apparatus has been made ready for immediate use, however, and just as soon as the weather will permit the work will be started."

Appealed to Common Pleas.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—Joseph S. Faloan, of Hanoverton, received a judgment in Justice Winter's court in that town for $75, claimed as due for rental for a saloon building occupied by George Sinclair and Charles Deer. The defendants have appealed to common pleas court.

CITIZEN'S TICKET FOR WELLSVILLE

Nominations Made and a Platform
Adopted at a Public Meeting.

INDORSEMENT IS GIVEN

To Several Candidates Whose Names Appear Upon the Republican Ticket—Plea Made in Favor of No Politics at Municipal Elections.

A ticket, to be known as a Citizens' ticket, was nominated by an assemblage of 49 voters in the Wellsville Methodist Protestant church last evening. In consequence there will be more "scratching" at the spring election than for many years.

Several of the strongest Republican nominees were endorsed and the man placed at the head of the ticket is conceded to be a very strong candidate. He is a union man, works in a local pottery and is a prominent church member. With these acquisitions he will undoubtedly poll a good vote, as the Republican candidate and the probable Democratic candidate are being opposed by a large number, owing to their alleged affiliation for organizations other than the potteries and churches.

Those present at the last evening's meeting constituted some of the most prominent men of the city among whom were: Ellis Pease, J. C. Russell, Charles Woodruff, W. E. Davis, Isaac Secrist, F. M. Halley, Gillis Moore, D. A. Tarr, William Donaldson, J. B. Goff, J. M. Russell, John Wilson, Captain Todd, H. J. C. Lewis, Hugh Andrews, Rev. W. M. Glasgow, Rev. C. L. V. McKee, A. C. Van Dyke, William Wooster, A. B. Apple, Albert Catlett, C. A. Peterson, C. McCartney, J. J. Dowling, W. J. Culp, J. L. Jurken, Aaron Eaton, Dr. McConnell, W. H. Daughaday and Charles Snediker. The organization was made permanent upon motion and F. M. Halley was elected chair man and A. C. Van Dyke, secretary.

A committee composed of Rev. C. L. V. McKee, Rev. J. B. Goff and Frank Groves was appointed to prepare a platform for the adoption of the organization. It follows:

"We, a convention of citizens of Wellsville, believe that a city government is for the safety, peace and prosperity of the citizens and for the preservation and improvement of their morals and not for the purpose of supplying a few persons with honorable and lucrative positions, much less for the protection of the vicious. We believe that existing laws should be enforced in their evident letter and spirit until they are repealed without regard to class or distinction, and that a sworn officer of the law who has failed to do so, to the best of his ability, is a perjurer.

"We believe that the officers of the city are not matters of party politics, but of business in which every citizen, rich or poor, landlord or tenant, is financially concerned and that honesty, sobriety and business ability are essential in public as well as private affairs.

these should be provided at a small cost. We believe that not only the good name of our city and the safety of ourselves and children, but that the business interests of our city demand the suppression of vice in whatever form by moral, capable and vigilant officers and the speedy punishment of the evildoer."

Upon this platform the following ticket was nominated:

For mayor—W. E. Davis.

For solicitor—Charles Boyd, Republican candidate, endorsed.

For treasurer—T. R. Andrews, endorsed.

For street commissioner—H. A. Herbert, endorsed.

UPSET IN THE SNOW

SLEIGHING PARTY MET WITH A MISHAP ON THE ROAD.

A Girl Fainted And Men Were Hurt,
But None Very Seriously.

Seven couples of young people met with a mishap last night. They had a very pleasant sleighing party to the home of Miss Mary Lewis, north of Cannon's Mill. The evening was very pleasantly spent. On the return trip the merry party had reached a point near the home of James Crawford, when the sled struck a stone and overturned.

The entire party was thrown out and all were more or less injured. One young lady fainted and several of the men were hurt. A number of bloody noses resulted from their own coming in contact with other people's heads. No one was seriously hurt.

PYTHIANS' PROGRAM

A FINE CELEBRATION OF THE ORDER'S ANNIVERSARY.

Music, Speaking And an Elaborate Luncheon Features of the Affair.

The thirty-first anniversary of the K. of P. lodges of this city was held last evening, about 200 members and their friends being present. During the early part of the evening the annual parade of the Uniform Rank took place. The program consisted of singing, recitations and an address by T. C. Neal, upon the accomplishments of the order.

Those who took part in the entertainment were Prof. Laughlin, Prof. Swingswood, Miss Margaret Harrison, Miss Margaret King and Miss Laura Geon. Dancing was also indulged in, after which an elaborate luncheon was served.

BANK CLERKS' BOWLING

National and Citizens'
National Teams.

The clerks of the First National and Citizens' National bank have organized bowling teams and yesterday they played two exciting games on the Craig-Carnahan alleys. The First National team won, but by a correspondingly small margin. The score: First National—Hall, 129, 137; Chambers, 129, 111; Firth, 159, 145; Dickey, 90, 72. Citizens' National—Blythe, 66, 82; Stewart, 100, 121; Dunlap, 114, 124; Blythe, Jr., 84, 138.

NOT YET SETTLED

The Pollock Road Case Now Scheduled for a Seventh Hearing.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—The matter of the township road through the Pollock farm in Elkrun township petitioned for by John Patterson and others will next be heard in common pleas court.

Patterson's attorneys have taken the case there on error. If heard again, this will be the seventh hearing.

And Still They Come.

Mayor Means, of Steubenville, received a letter yesterday from a Cincinnati man named Thomas saying that he and his brother would like to marry the girls whose father is alleged to have said he would put up $1,000 each for husbands. A letter to the girls was also attached, to be delivered in case everything was all right. Thomas said he was in the patent medicine business.

Bill Introduced Allowing Use of Brick In Improving Highways.

CITIZENS ARE ALL IN FAVOR

Of a Proposition to Improve Calcutta Road From Calcutta Cityward.

A DEMOCRATIC SCHEME FAILS

Proposition to Investigate State Treasury Fell Flat, There Being Nothing to Investigate—Senator Archer's Game Bills Passed.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 19.—Mr. Crist will introduce a bill in the house giving the taxpayers of St. Clair township authority to improve roads. The measure will amend the general road improvement law by permitting the use of brick in the improvement of highways. The petition requesting the passage of the bill is signed by nearly every taxpayer and voter in the township. It is proposed to improve Calcutta road from the hamlet of Calcutta southward to the line of Liverpool township. The movement, it is thought, will result in the Calcutta road being paved from Calcutta into the city of East Liverpool.

The taxpayers of St. Clair propose to take the initiative in the matter of the improvement of roads and hope that their example will be emulated by other townships in the county. The bill will empower them to issue bonds.

Messrs. J. J. Purinton and J. E. McDonald, of East Liverpool, arrived here yesterday, the former to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the State Building and Loan association, and the latter to attend to some private business. Mr. Purinton also called at the state house to do a little lobbying against the measure placing a new tax on building and loan associations. Another weighty petition against this tax was received from East Liverpool by Mr. Buell on Tuesday. Former Governor Bushnell was among those who were here yesterday filing protests against the Willis bill, taxing the capital stock of corporations.

A resolution introduced in the house by Mr. Sharp, of Fairfield, having for its purpose the investigation of the state treasury for 10 years past, created some surprise at first. No specific charges were made against either the present incumbent of the office or any of his predecessors. It was without doubt inspired by a baseless rumor to the effect that for some years treasurers of state possibly had loaned state funds, and it fell flat. It was one of those semi-annual political feelers thrown into the house by the opposition to make political capital. The friends of Mr. Cameron came promptly to the rescue and soon relegated the resolution to the political boneyard. The investigation contemplated will not be made for the very excellent reason that no investigation is necessary. Mr. Sharp acknowledges that his action was based on vague rumor.

Senator Archer's game bills were passed by the senate on Tuesday afternoon after several hours' debate. Senator Connell succeeded in getting an amendment tacked onto one of the measures giving farmers and tenants the right to shoot rabbits on their premises. A great many amendments were offered to the bills, but most of them were voted down.

ADJUDGED INSANE

Barbara Bolton, Aged 26, of This City, to Be Sent to Massillon.

Lisbon, February 19.—(Special)—Barbara Bolton, of East Liverpool, on examination, has been declared insane, and application will be made for her admission to the Massillon hospital. She is about 26 years old and has been mentally afflicted less than two years, according to the certificate of Drs. T. D. Marquis and W. N. Bailey.

EAST END

Nelsonville Men Who Propose Building a Pottery Looking Over Local Plants.

Ex-State Senator Dew, of Nelsonville, owner of the Dew house, of that town, and Mr. Steadley, a prominent coal operator of that section, have been in the East End for two days, and in company with Thomas Burton have inspected the East End and National potteries and the Potters' Mining and Milling plant.

It is the intention of these men to build a five-kiln pottery at Nelsonville, and they came to the East End at the solicitation of Mr. Burton, who proposes to interest himself in the new deal. The men expect to return to their homes this evening.

LARGELY ATTENDED

And of Great Interest Was the Meeting at Second Presbyterian Church.

A large congregation was again present last evening at the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. S. L. Boston preached a powerful and interesting sermon on the subject, "Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock."

Two beautiful solos were rendered by Prof. A. A. Laughlin, and two new members were taken into the church. Another meeting will be held this evening, when Rev. Mr. Boston will occupy the pulpit.

A meeting will also be held Thursday evening when, by special request, Prof. Laughlin will sing "The Holy City."

BROKEN TROLLEY WIRE

Delayed Street Railway Traffic—Fine Snow Also Caused Trouble.

The cold weather this morning caused the trolley wire of the East Liverpool railway to part at a point east of Ralston's crossing, causing passengers to be transferred for several hours. The line car was called, and after considerable work, the break was repaired.

Some trouble was experienced early last evening by the motormen of this line, in ascending the Washington street hill. The rails were very slippery, on account of the drifting snow, causing the men to lose much time.

Work on New Parsonage.

Owing to the revival service at the Erie street M. E. church no meeting of the official board, or the trustees of this church will be held this month. The next meeting will be held in March. Work on the new parsonage being built by this church has been delayed on account of the weather, but it is hoped the new house will be finished within three months.

Brown-Dillon.

At the Erie street M. E. parsonage, Rev. G. W. Orcutt last evening performed the ceremony which united Miss Amanda Brown and Edmund Dillon. The bride resides in the East End and is a popular young lady. The groom is from Empire and of a well-to-do family. They will make their home in the East End.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Rosie Alley, of Erie street, is very ill.

John Hays, of the East End, is ill with the grip.

Frank White, of Railroad street was in Toronto today.

Mrs. Thomas Smith, of Calhoun's addition, is under the care of a physician.

Samuel R. Dixon, of St. George street, left this morning for Alliance, where he will remain several days on business.

Arrangements toward the settling of the estate of H. Moore Ralston, late of the East End, were commenced this morning.

Recovering from Injuries.

Bert Hershner, a ghost kilnman at Laughlin's No. 2, who was injured by being struck on the head by some falling saggars yesterday, is recovering. Three stitches were required to close the cut in his head.

LARKIN IS ELECTED.

Anti-Flinn-Stone Candidate Is Chosen Controller of Pittsburgh.

Quay-Durham-Ashbridge People Carried the Quaker City—Anti-Machine People May Control Pittsburgh Councils—Other Election News

Pittsburg, Feb. 19.—John B. Larkin, the anti-Flinn-Stone candidate, was yesterday elected city controller on the largest vote ever polled in the city, over Lewis, the Republican machine candidate, by a majority that may attain or exceed 10,000. The total vote reached 50,000. The city council has been carried by the united Citizens and Democrats, and will be anti-machine in both branches.

Returns from the ward contests which had been received at 1 o'clock this morning showed that the Citizens party will have an overwhelming majority of common council, and that they stand a fairly good chance to organize the select branch also.

Machine Carried Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—In every ward in the city the Quay-Durham-Ashbridge machine was triumphant by probably 75,000 majority. The showing made by the fusion ticket was disappointing, and the ultra reform tickets received little or no support. City Solicitor John L. Kinsey was re-elected; four machine Republicans were elected magistrates with Gorman and Fitzpatrick, Quay Democrats, as minority magistrates.

Eighteen select and 62 common councilmen were elected, all of whom will support the "administration."

Harrisburg, Feb. 19.—Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic nominee for mayor, is elected by 8,000 majority over Dr. Samuel F. Hassler, Republican. The Democrats also claim the election of John K. Royal, city treasurer; William H. Moore, city controller, and James H. W. Howard and William M. Gastrock and George W. Leiseman, Jr., city assessors.

Ex-Football Captain.

McCormick is 29 years old and was captain of the famous Yale football team in 1892. The proposition to increase the city indebtedness $1,099,000 for public improvements was adopted by 5,000 majority. McCormick was one of the originators of this movement and had charge of the legislation in common council, of which he is a member.

At midnight the Republican leaders conceded the election of the entire Democratic city ticket.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 19.—Altoona has elected the Democratic candidate for mayor, treasurer and controller, S. M. Hoyer, Fred Sheffield and Joseph Hammer respectively, defeating the Republican candidates, John Plummer, George Harpham and J. Leamer. The Republicans elect the school directors, Dr. McCarthy and D. K. Howe, and the board of assessors. The eight common and four select councilmen are divided between the two parties equally. About 6,000 votes were polled, a large number for a local election. William T. Howard, independent candidate for mayor, contributed to the defeat of the Republican ticket. Hoyer's majority may reach 1,200.

Republicans Carried Johnstown.

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 19.—The Republicans carried the city by majorities ranging from 500 to 700. John Pendry, Republican, will succeed L. D. Woodruff, Democrat, as mayor. Alexander Wilson and Charles H. Wehn, both Republicans, were elected controller and treasurer respectively and will succeed Republicans in office.

The total vote cast was about 5,300, which is over 400 below that cast in the municipal election of 1899. A fierce snow storm raged all day and kept many voters at home.

MISS MORTON A BRIDE.

Fourth Daughter of Ex-Vice President Married to Mr. Rutherford.

New York, Feb. 19.—Miss Alice Morton, fourth daughter of former Vice President Morton, and Winthrop Rutherford were married in Grace Episcopal church. The Rev. Dr. Huntington, rector of the church, officiated. The wedding was simple in the extreme, there being no bridesmaids and no decorations in the church, except two bouquets of ascension lilies that filled the vases on the altar. The ushers were Winthrop Chanler, Egerton Winthrop, Jr., J. Borden Harriman, William R. Travers and Herman Duryea.

The bride was gowned in heavy ivory satin, severely plain, with a veil of Brussels lace that was caught with a slender spray of orange blossoms and fell over the train of her gown. She wore no jewels and carried an ivory prayer book.

Those present included the Marquise de Talleyrand, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Twombly and Dr. and Mrs. Webb.

Favorable to Omnibus Claims Bill.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The senate committee on claims yesterday authorized a favorable report on the omnibus claims bill, and later in the day Senator Warren reported the bill to the senate. As reported, the bill provides for the payment of about 400 claims and makes an aggregate appropriation of $3,051,842. Many other claims are referred to the executive departments for findings. No claim which has not been passed by either the senate or house is included in the bill.

TRIED TO BRIBE RICE'S SERVANT.

Valet Jones Said Patrick Offered Him Money to Swear Falsely.

New York, Feb. 19.—After several days of examination and cross-examination of exports, new interest in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, accused of the murder of William Marsh Rice, was aroused late yesterday afternoon, when Charles F. Jones, Mr. Rice's valet, who has been charged with being the tool of Lawyer Patrick in compassing the death of the millionaire, was put upon the stand by the state.

Jones, in part, said that Patrick called at Rice's apartments in October, 1899, to see Rice and said his name was Smith. Rice was in bed and the defendant said he would call again. This he did, about a week later.

"It was about 8 o'clock in the evening," said Jones. "I saw him in the parlor. Mr. Rice was in the back room. He spoke of Texas news. Either at that visit or one he paid a week later, Patrick talked about the trial of the claim against Mr. Rice under the will of Mrs. Rice. He seemed much interested and asked if the case had been settled. He said the evidence was very strong in favor of Mr. Holt."

"On his second visit, I think, he told me he was Mr. Holt's lawyer. He told me the terms of a settlement had been arranged and said if I would write it out on the typewriter he would get it signed. He gave me a sheet of paper with the writing in pencil that he wanted copied."

"Did Mr. Rice see Patrick?" asked Mr. Osborne, for the state.

"He opened the door while Patrick was talking to me. I don't think he recognized him."

Jones described the letter Patrick wanted him to write. The letter was to state that Mr. Rice had lost confidence in his Texas lawyer, but that he loved Texas and wanted to return there and wanted the litigation settled. In reply to Mr. Osborne's question, Jones said:

"Patrick was to give me $250 for it, but he would not give me the money unless I would go on the witness stand and swear that Rice signed it. I refused to give him the letter."

"Patrick told me Mr. Holt had given him $500 and had promised him $10,000 when a settlement of the litigation was effected."

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. OBJECTIONS FILED

To Bridge Over the Ohio River Which Will Have to Be Rebuilt.

Bridge architecture on the Ohio river is to undergo a complete revolution. All the Baltimore and Ohio bridges spanning the stream are to be rebuilt, and objections have been filed against the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie bridge is just below the mouth of the Beaver river, which rushes in with a side current, which makes it almost an impossibility for the pilots to avoid striking the abutments.

The Steubenville bridge of the Panhandle is in a bad location as there is a very abrupt bend in the river one mile above the piers, and boats rounding this bend come within the full sweep of the wind so that it is a difficult matter to steer for the channel span. It is believed now that the government will co-operate with the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie and the P. C. & St. L. and stand one-half the cost of rebuilding the two bridges. It is said that if the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie bridge is to be rebuilt the company will insist on making it a double track structure clear across the valley from Monaca to Beaver.

Inclement Weather Brings Coughs, Colds and Catarrh.

Inclement weather begins when autumn ends. The great objection to our climate is that it alternates between the heat of the tropics and the rigors of the Arctic.

The system becomes relaxed by the effects of the heat, and the first cold snap of winter sows the seed of thousands of cases of chronic catarrh which in a large per cent. of cases will end fatally.

President Wm. Ubelaker Uses Peruna as a Safeguard Against Inclement Weather.

Wm. Ubelaker, President of the Lake View Lodge of Foresters, writes from 337 North Clark St., Chicago, Ill., the following letter:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—For years past when I have been exposed to wet or inclement weather, my chest would hurt me and I would have serious indigestion, and I would be laid up for a day or two, causing inconvenience and pain.

One of my lodge friends advised me to try Peruna, as it had helped him, and I found that a bottle cured me.

If I feel badly now I at once take two or three doses, and I find it keeps me in fine health. Peruna is worthy of every one's confidence.—WM. UBELAKER.

It is only just ordinary good, common sense to provide against inclement weather. If you have the slightest cold, cough, sneezing, or any other indication that you are "under the weather," a few doses of Peruna will put you right.

Congressman Horace G. Snover, of Port Austin, Mich., writes from House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I have found Peruna a very efficient and speedy remedy for a persistent and annoying cough resulting from catarrhal trouble."—Horace G. Snover.

Mrs. Lavina E. Walker, who holds the highest state office of the Ladies of the Illinois G. A. R., which is Department Chaplain, writes the following letter:

WESTERN SPRINGS, ILL. The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.: Gentlemen—"You have my sincere gratitude for placing before suffering women a medicine which has proven such a blessing as Peruna has."

"I have used it myself when much worn out, and found most gratifying results, and a number of the women of

our Order suffering with weakness peculiar to women, have been wonderfully helped and cured by Peruna."—Lavina E. Walker.

The proposition to have all milk that is sold in East Liverpool subjected to tests and analyses is timely and should be carried out by the health authorities. It is probable that few if any of the dairymen who supply this city are intentionally supplying impure milk, but it is by no means unlikely that some of the milk sold may not be up to the standard, even though the dealers are not aware of the fact. As is frequently remarked, and as every physician will agree, impure milk is one of the most common causes of disease, and too much attention cannot be given to the source of supply. At Wheeling a state veterinarian has been examining dairy herds and has found many cow-stables in such a filthy condition that he has refused to grant their owners certificates. He has also discovered tuberculosis among cows whose milk has been peddled about the city. The result will probably be a diligent effort to make the dairymen comply with the law. Such an effort should be put forth everywhere. Good milk is one of the best of foods; bad milk one of the most unhealthy and dangerous.

All the Ohio valley will be benefited if the proposed improvements on the Ohio river are made. The more promptly work is started and the task completed the better for all interests concerned. East Liverpool has every reason for earnestly seconding the efforts of Congressman Taylor to secure an appropriation for the proposed lock and dam below this city. One of the greatest needs of the city today is more adequate transportation facilities. The freight tonnage, as will be seen by statistics elsewhere given, is already surprisingly large, and it is increasing at a rapid rate. River improvements that would insure a navigable stage of water at all seasons would be of inestimable value, not alone to the industries of this city, but to those of the whole populous valley. There is no reason why a fair and equitable river and harbor bill should fall with this congress. The government finances were never in better shape, and there is no reasonable excuse for delaying the important work which the government has begun.

All the arguments in favor of free trade fail to explain satisfactorily why the United States, a protectionist country, is able to outstrip free trade Great Britain in the commercial world. Last year America sold in foreign markets more products than were sold by England by $75,000,000. The exports of the United Kingdom have remained nearly stationary for 10 years, while those of the United States have increased from $872,000,000 in 1891 to $1,438,746,083 in 1901, or more than a half billion dollars.

A Philadelphia judge has decided that a man has a right to commit suicide. This is contrary to the usual rule, but there are certainly extenuating circumstances in the case of any man who has lived long enough in Philadelphia to become a resident.

If Senator Wellington expected to attract any attention by emerging from his retirement and making an "anti" speech, he will be disappointed. The country has heard quite enough of Wellington.

There is a phenomenal situation in the iron world. With production at its greatest height, the furnaces are still unable to supply the demand for pig iron, and for the first time in many years, orders have been placed abroad by American consumers. Thus other parts of the world will profit by the prosperity of American industries.

The election result in Pittsburg was certainly a great surprise. Let us hope the Smoky City people have struck the right brand of reform at last.

A New York paper observes that there is more than $300,000,000 of water in the steel trust. Perhaps that is why so many persons are damming it.

OR THE DAY PRINCE ARRIVES,

Admiral Evans Issues Orders to the Captains of His Fleet.

New York, Feb. 19.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans yesterday issued orders to the captains of his fleet concerning their duties on Washington's birthday, the day Prince Henry is expected to arrive. First, the orders direct that at 8 a. m. the vessels of the squadron will "full dress" ship and remain so dressed until sunset. At meridian a national salute will be fired.

When the Kronprinz Wilhelm, having on board Prince Henry, arrives the admiral and his staff will board her at or near quarantine. When the liner passes Admiral Evans' squadron the vessels will man the military tops, turrets and rails. A salute of 21 guns will be fired by each ship, the German flag being broken at the main at the first gun. At the last gun of the salute each vessel will haul down the German flag and re-hoist the American flag.

When the Hohenzollern hoists the imperial standard a salute of 21 guns will be fired by each ship of the squadron. After the imperial standard has been saluted commanding officers of the squadron will visit the Hohenzollern and pay their respects to Prince Henry.

The ships of the squadron will be illuminated with electric lights and mottoes furnished for the purpose from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The builders of Emperor William's yacht said yesterday that the platform around the yacht would only accommodate 200 people. These will be Prince Henry and his party, the president and his delegates and such others as can be accommodated.

As She Would Have Been.

A gentleman in Paris paid a visit to a lady, in whose parlor he saw a portrait of a lovely woman of, say, five and twenty. Upon the entrance of the lady her visitor naturally asked her if the picture was a family portrait and was told that it represented her deceased daughter. "Is it long since you lost her?" asked the gentleman. "Alas, sir," replied the lady, "she died just after her birth, and I had a portrait painted to represent her as she would have appeared if she had lived until now!"

POTTERY NEWS

The exclusive announcement in this paper last evening of the reported combination of five of the largest potteries in Trenton caused no end of talk among the manufacturers of this city. It had been known for some time that an effort was being quietly made in Trenton to consolidate a number of factories in that city, but the fact that the deal was closed was not known in this city. The first news of the deal was telegraphed to Pittsburg yesterday morning, and shortly after noon the story was telephoned to a prominent manufacturer in this city. When asked for an expression concerning this consolidation a prominent manufacturer said this morning: "It seems to be the order of the day to consolidate, as it lessens competition, and there is not an industry that I know of where competition is sharper than in the pottery trade. Not long ago I was talking with Mr. Burgess, of the International pottery of Trenton, and he said that while an attempt was there being made to effect a consolidation among the Trenton potters, he had been absent from the city for some time, and late events in the proposition he was not acquainted with."

It was also announced by another manufacturer who had been approached on the subject, that overtures had been made by the eastern people to get one or two potteries in this section to go into the deal, but the offer was refused. This statement was made by the person who had been approached about the new deal. It was also said that if the Trenton company could not induce any local concerns to go into the combination it was the intent of the company to secure properties, either old or new in the west, in order that additional western business could be secured. The eastern manufacturer has not, it seems, been able to compete with his western brother on account of the greater variety of shapes to be found here. The eastern manufacturer is better able to handle southern coast trade than the local concerns on account of the freight rates between Trenton and the south, and East Liverpool and the south. It is practically an all-rail route from this city to New Orleans except when the river is open to navigation, but in the east freight can be sent south most of the year by water.

Considerable trouble has been experienced at the Union of late on account of the machinery, particularly the engine, which has to be stopped frequently during the day. Jiggermen and turners yesterday morning had a lengthy talk with Vice President Frank W. Fowler, of Pittsburg, and asked him to make some arrangements whereby the turners and jiggermen could make better time with their work. It is claimed by the workmen that because the engine stops so much it is almost impossible to make satisfactory pay. Mr. Fowler advised the men that necessary repairs would be made to the engine at once, and if matters justified it a new engine would be secured. The Union company plans to place its plant here in the best condition possible.

What may be the last general meeting of the stockholders of the Barberton Pottery company was to be held this afternoon at Barberton. All the stock was to be represented at this session, which was held for the purpose of considering plans concerning the future policy of the company. It is expected this plant will be placed in operation not later than June 1.

Mrs. Case, who was at the sanitarium with her husband, escaped. She said she supposed the nurse who was attending her husband succeeded in getting him out. His remains have not been recovered. Ira D. The prisoners will be transported in a special car, and will leave Columbus Thursday. The law does not permit the handcuffing of prisoners to the seats for the reason that in case of accident they would be helpless, but the men will be handcuffed and shackled together in pairs and all connected by a long chain.

PETCH'S TRAGIC DEATH

WHIRLED AROUND BY SHAFTING FIFTY TIMES.

Horrible Sight Met the Son's Gaze. The Man's Death Instantaneous.

The body of John Petch, who met a horrible and untimely death at Newton Hamilton, Pa., Monday afternoon, was brought to the city on the afternoon train yesterday and removed to his late home on Second street, where scores of citizens assembled to view all that was mortal of a worthy citizen and a true friend.

Upon the arrival of her husband's remains Mrs. Petch displayed uncontrollable grief. She was heart-broken and it is feared, may suffer nervous prostration. The body was accompanied home by Charles Petch, a son. He was working in the adjoining room to where his father was killed and relates the story of the tragic death as follows:

"The last time I saw my father alive was at 1:30 o'clock when he left me with an oil can in his hand to oil two shafts in the engine room. About two minutes after he left a young boy came running to me and with a deathly pallor on his face, said: 'There is a man caught in the big shaft.' Father not being near, my first impulse was to run and shut off the engine, which I did, but not until I started to see who the unfortunate man was did I think he had been the victim. I was almost afraid to go into the engine room, but finally did and the sight that met my gaze was awful. There on the ground lay my father mangled so horribly that he was hardly recognizable.

"His right arm was caught in the main shaft and he had been turned over and over at least 50 times. Upon each revolution his lower limbs came in contact with the rafters of the ceiling. His legs were broken off at the knees and his right arm was torn from the body. He met instant death, and as a result did not suffer much."

The funeral services were conducted at the house this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

C. B. ATEN INJURED

Prominent Merchant Badly Hurt By Being Struck By a Car.

George B. Aten, one of the most prominent and highly respected merchants of Wellsville, lies at his home on Front street, in a precarious condition.

He left his store yesterday afternoon for home, and at the corner of Seventh street, in averting a collision between himself and a team of horses which were traveling speedily toward him, he jumped to the middle of the street car track and directly in front of an east bound car.

The car struck him a violent blow, knocking him down and besides painfully bruising his left side and shoulder, inflicted an ugly gash in his head below the left temple. It is thought that if he is not internally injured he will recover in a short time. But, being an aged man, the wounds may prove very serious.

ROBBED OF $30

A Case of Petty Thieving in a Business Man's House on Main Street.

Another case of petty thieving has occurred in a prominent business man's house on Main street, and again it is the wish of the victim that his name be concealed. He stated last evening that some one entered his home Saturday night and ransacked several rooms, but took away nothing but money, which amounted to over $30. He is confident that he knows who the thief is.

If his suspicions are correct the culprit is a boy whose parents are of good repute.

Barber Laurent Missing.

Ed Laurent, a barber who came to this city two weeks ago from Carnegie, and secured employment at H. E. Lownd's barber shop, left the city Saturday night. It seems he forgot to settle a board bill with Mrs. Metzger, of Main street, and Mr. Lownd's says he purloined several razors and scissors from him. No warrant is likely to be issued.

Mishap to a Coaster.

Robert Davidson, a lad of 14 years, while coasting fell from his sled against an iron projectile and sustained a painful wound under his left eye. The eye sight was not injured.

Funeral at Rochester.

Rev. Father James H. Halligan conducted the funeral services over the

Gold Furniture

Gold furniture is like dessert—it's the finishing touch. You don't want too much of it but a parlor to be well furnished needs a touch of it.

A Chair or Table or Cabinet in this finish gives a tone impossible to get with anything else. This spring we have put in a larger stock than ever before. Its popularity has so increased that we are selling it almost daily.

In our large window we are showing some pieces which will give you an idea of the beauty of the finish.

Flat Gold and Vernis Martin

You will notice two distinct effects in the gold finish. The dull is made with pure gold leaf, and in this the leaf is the last coat put on. In the Vernis Martin, or bright finish, the gold is put on as a powder which gives the beautiful mottled effect.

Over this is flowed a number of coats of the finest varnish. This makes it as durable as any finish made.

The Price

The price is somewhat higher than the natural wood finished but not high enough to be prohibitory, especially when you consider that a few pieces are all you need.

remains of the late Dennis Hayes at Rochester, Pa., yesterday afternoon.

Quite a number of other Wellsville people attended the funeral. They were: Messrs. James O'Grady, E. J. Broderick, James Hayes and Mrs. William O'Grady.

A Fine Entertainment.

The literary and musical entertainment given by Local No. 24, N. B. of O. P., in McKenzie's hall last evening was the source of unalloyed pleasure to nearly 300 guests. Locals Nos. 9 and 12 of East Liverpool were represented, and all report an enjoyable time. The committee to whom the success of the entertainment is due consisted of Messrs. William Gloss, Charles Raeger, S. S. Carnahan, Flora McDough and Chester Elliott.

New West End Dwelling.

Among the many new dwelling houses which will add greatly to the appearance of the West End is the one which is under construction in the Nicholson addition and which will be the property of Robert Bones, of Eighteenth street.

POPPING THE QUESTION.

Curious Methods That Prevail in Some Foreign Countries.

In this favored land of the free every lovelorn swain has his own way of making love and popping the question, but in some foreign countries the penmanship has peculiar and traditional ways of performing those pleasing functions. Among Hungarian gypsies cakes are used as love letters. Inside the cake is a coin, which is baked in it. The cake is flung to the favored object of one's affections. The retention of the cake signifies acceptance, but if it is flung back with force it signifies rejection.

The Japanese lover wishing to make known the state of his feelings throws a bunch of pale plum flower buds into his loved one's litter as she enters it to go to a friend's wedding. If she tosses the blossoms lightly out, the suitor knows that he is rejected, but if she fastens them to her girdle it is "Oh, happiness!" with him.

In some parts of Spain the young peasant looks unutterable things, but never tries to speak until he has been accepted. The girl neither looks nor speaks, but she sees. Late in the cool of the evening the youth knocks at her father's door and asks for a gourd of water. It is of course given to him. Then comes the crisis. If he is invited to take a chair within the porch or a seat in the garden, he is an accepted suitor, but if this civility is not extended to him he goes away knowing that he is rejected. If he is accepted, there is a general celebration by the family of the bride to be in honor of her betrothal.

When the Eskimo goes a-wooing, he walks to the house of his loved one's parents and, seizing the object of his affections by her long, strong hair or her furs, carries her away to his hut of snow or tent of skins. No matter how much the girl may reciprocate her suitor's affections, she always makes a show of resistance and tries to run away from him, this for the sake of preserving the conventionalities of Eskimo society.

Aged Couple's Awful Experience.

Fremont, O., Feb. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. John Glosser, an aged couple, were found in their home yesterday in a most pitiable condition. They had been overcome by gas last Saturday, and while prostrated their fires went out. Later they recovered consciousness, but could not move, and had been lying cold and helpless. They were so badly frozen that the arms and legs of both must be amputated. Neither is expected to recover.

Whistling.

As a method of prolonging life and strengthening the human frame against sickness whistling is said to be beyond compare. Development of chest and neck muscles is one of the special advantages claimed for the exercise. Long, deep breathing is an essential for a good whistler, as it is not permissible to draw in the breath except during the intervals of the sound production.

Petulant Tennyson.

Tennyson was one of the most fortunate of poets, in that he was rarely criticised adversely, yet Mr. Bram Stoker, who saw him often while his plays were in course of production at the Lyceum, said that he used constantly to complain of "the attacks made on him." He actually wound up one day by declaring that he often wished he had never written a line.

MISS STONE IS FREE.

Dragoman of American
Legation.

REV. TSILKA WAS ARRESTED.

Accused of Complicity in the Kidnap-
ing of Miss Stone—Husband of the Woman Taken Captive With American Missionary.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The Temps last evening published a dispatch from Constantinople which announces that Miss Ellen M. Stone has been released by the brigands who have held her captive since Sept. 3 last, and has been handed over, in good health, to the dragoman of the American legation.

The dispatch adds that the "Reverend Tsilka" has been arrested on the charge of complicity in the kidnapping of Miss Stone.

The companion in captivity of Miss Stone was Madame K. S. Tsilka, a Bulgarian woman, wife of Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian teacher of Samakov. Miss Stone, while traveling with Madame Tsilka and a party of about 15 friends, was captured by brigands in the district of Salonica, Sept. 3. Since that time vigorous efforts have been made by the United States government and by missionaries to obtain the release of the captives. The brigands demanded a ransom of $25,000 (Turkish), but only $72,500 was collected for the ransom, and this sum was paid over to the brigands Feb. 6 by M. Gargiulo, chief dragoman of the American legation at Constantinople, and W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American mission at Constantinople, who met the brigands on the road to the Podrome monastery.

Madame Tsilka was educated at the Northfield seminary. At the time of receiving her American training and education she was Miss Stephano, a Bulgarian. Having been converted in childhood to the Christian belief, she came to America, after having refused to marry the man of her parents' choosing. Dr. Dwight L. Moody, becoming interested in her welfare, found a place for her in his noted school. Having finished her training at that institution, she became a trained nurse. While engaged in her professional duties, in the Adirondacks, she became acquainted with Mr. Tsilka, a Macedonian, who had also been educated in the United States. At that period he was preparing for work as a medical missionary. Soon after the completion of their training the couple were married and went to Bulgaria, where they at once entered upon missionary work.

Miss Stone is one of the missionaries of the American board of foreign missions. She has been attached to the Salonica mission since 1878. She was born in Roxbury, Mass., and her home is in Chelsea, Mass., where her mother resides.

FAT NERVES.

A whirl of excitement was recently caused among scientists by the discovery of "how nerves act".

Healthy nerves are fat nerves. It is fat in the core of a nerve that by hardening and softening creates nerve action.

Maybe this explains why Scott's Emulsion has always been such a remarkable remedy for nervousness.

Scott's Emulsion makes fat nerves. It feeds them with fat. Good for all forms of nervousness and for neuralgia.

A DISTRESSING PROSPECT.

—St. Louis Republic.

house last Friday, when he bitterly assailed Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefoot and criticised the official preparations for the reception of Prince Henry, had a sequel in the debate yesterday, during the debate on the Indian appropriation bill. Mr. Gillet, of Massachusetts, in a half hour's speech, declared that the intemperance of Mr. Wheeler's language carried its own condemnation. Nevertheless, he (Gillet) grievously deplored such an affront to a foreign country. During the course of the speech two Democrats—Robinson, of Indiana, and Thayer, of Massachusetts, disclaimed any sympathy with Mr. Wheeler's utterances. These disclaimers drew from Mr. Talbot, of South Carolina, the statement that he desired to share in the responsibility of the speech, every word of which he said he endorsed. Mr. Wheeler himself subsequently replied to Mr. Gillet, reaffirming what he had said, and declaring that he would stand by his words whether they were discreet or not. He read a number of letters, telegrams and one cablegram from London, commending his utterances. The incident was the feature of the day.

Earlier in the session Mr. Hill, of Connecticut, and Mr. Shaffroth, of Colorado, discussed the former's bill to redeem silver in gold. Mr. Burleson, of Texas, criticised the president for changing his position on trusts. Other speakers were Messrs. Reid (Dem., Ark.), Sutherland (Rep., Utah), Padgett (Dem., Tenn.), Pou (Dem., N. C.) and Robinson (Dem., Ind.).

The Indian bill itself was not touched in the speech-making.

TO PUT DOWN WAR.

Do All It Could.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Governor Taft, of the Philippines, yesterday continued his testimony before the senate committee on the Philippines. He said, in part, that it became evident that the Filipino junta was preparing to locate in that city, making that point the center for their propaganda. General Wright was therefore directed to prepare a law on this subject, and had done so. The denunciation of secret societies had been inserted, he said, because they had been made the chief instrument of agitation against the United States. If the people understood the question there would be no objection to peaceable agitation, but under the circumstances the commission had felt that "the suspension of the right to advocate independence was not such a deprivation of the right of free speech as could not be justified by the presence of war, when for the benefit of the whole people it should be suppressed." At least one of the societies had for one of its main purposes assassination, being thus like the Mafia.

Replying to a question from Senator Patterson as to whether it was the intention to go further in this direction, Governor Taft replied:

"We propose to do all that we can do that is known to civilized nations to put down this war, which is such a great injury to the Philippine people." He said he had not given personal attention to the phraseology of the sedition laws, and he had no doubt that when peace should be restored section 10 would be repealed.

VOTE MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Time Set For Philippine Bill—Wellington Made a Speech.

Washington, Feb. 19.—It was agreed in the senate yesterday that a final vote on the Philippine tariff bill and the pending amendments should be taken next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The only stipulation made by the minority was that the last day's debate should be devoted to speeches not exceeding 15 minutes in duration. Senator Wellington, of Maryland, spoke yesterday in opposition to the pending bill, and Senator Stewart, of Nevada, in support of the measure.

Mr. Wellington's address covered the Philippine question generally. He set forth his well-known views forcefully. He always had been a Republican, he said, a believer in the system of protection, and a supporter of a gold standard of currency, but he had come to the parting of the ways with his party in 1898, when it developed "its imperialistic tendency." He opposed the pending tariff bill because he did not think congress had the right to enact legislation by which people were taxed without representation and governed without their consent.

Mr. Stewart made a brief legal and constitutional argument in support of the authority of congress to hold the Philippines and to provide a proper government for their inhabitants.

A Postmaster Absconded.

Toledo, O., Feb. 19.—A special to The Times from Bellevue says: Postmaster Hamilton Schuyler, of this city, has absconded and it is alleged he is short several thousand dollars in his accounts. He drew $900 of postoffice funds from the First National bank in this city Saturday afternoon and left town Saturday night. Postoffice Inspector Moore is inspecting the office and has placed T. H. Mallard in charge of the office. Bucket shop speculation in Toledo is said to be the cause of his downfall.

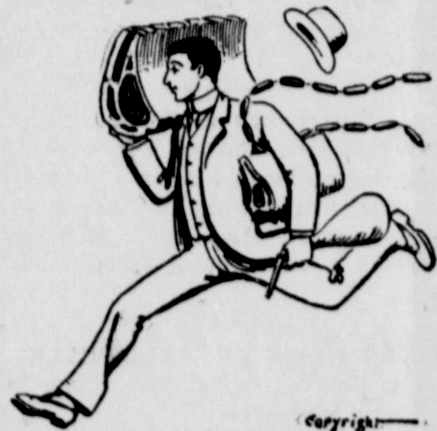

Charles L. Tiffany Dead.

New York, Feb. 19.—Charles L. Tiffany, senior member of the jewelry firm of Tiffany & Co., died at his home in this city of pneumonia. He was 90 years old. He had been ill only a few days, but had been kept to his home for some time as a consequence of a fall on Oct. 6, when he seriously injured his hip.

Anti-Trust Bill Defeated.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 19.—The house of delegates, by a tie vote, defeated, for want of a constitutional majority, the bill to prevent trusts from transacting business in the state of Maryland. The bill is similar in its provisions to the law now in force in Texas.

HOME STUDY COURSE

EDITED BY E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS LL.D.

Professor of American Literature in Brown University.

There was no such absorbing motive in other departments to give the unconsciousness of self in which the best results are produced. Few periods have had such an overpowering stimulus to intense yet logical exposition of privileges which are essential to constitutional liberty. The literature which resulted ought to have been and was exceptional prose.

The verse which accompanied it was exceptional, too, but not in the same way. All ballads were of course inspired by patriotic or loyalist sentiments. Even when John Trumbull's long poem, "McFingal," appeared, it could be referred to the same kind of inspiration. Still the channel in which the devotion of the youthful versemaker flowed was inevitably narrowed by its prevailing satire. This was effective, as no one can deny, and by its mirth-provoking sallies did good service for a good cause. It is not to so much purpose to inquire here who furnished the copy which he followed with greater or less fidelity as to know that the help furnished was not after the manner or in the degree of the aid lent by the political prose of the day.

Nothing but the controversy which had its participants on both sides, in England as well as in America, could have carried this mock heroic performance through several editions. Besides the literary taste of the time in poetics was not far above this level. We can be grateful to the author for winning supporters whom statesmen could not reach without calling him an eminent poet.

However, he did not aspire to write an epic, as two of his contemporaries did. But they had their sense of obligation as citizens and men of letters in the young America that had just been released from old England. A new and free nation of almost boundless expanse, with limitless prospects and high hopes, it was urged, should have a commensurate literature or the beginning of it at least. A patriotic aspiration of this kind must have impelled Timothy Dwight, president of Yale college, to undertake in 1785 his "Conquest of Canaan," the first American epic, as the author himself calls it. The resemblance it bears to those which had preceded it, notably the "Iliad" and "Paradise Lost," consists largely in the antiquity of the subject. Differences must be explained by saying that Homer and Milton were born to be poets, as the American was born to be a college president and a diligent and persevering versifier. Genius is not always the faculty of taking pains. If it were, the "Conquest of Canaan" would not have perished in a hundred years. Nevertheless it is worth reading—some of it. Biblical students will be pleased to note what side lights can be thrown upon the sacred story by a poetic imagination if they read as far as the eleventh book. The crookedness of Hanneel, the loves of Irad and Selima, of Elam and Mina, the ghost of Herzon, the prowess of Jabin, the valor of Zimri, are for the modern reader what the miracle and mystery plays were to the dark ages. Modern battlefields and Revolutionary generals are somewhat belated actors, but the heroes just returned from Monmouth and Yorktown did not object to being in company with Caleb and Joshua. They knew their Bibles as well as their descendants knew a Sunday newspaper, and they understood a Scriptural allusion or an Old Testament hero a great deal better. And as for the versification, the rhymes of Dwight were as good in their esteem as Pope's translation of the "Iliad" and his characters not inferior to Milton's in their Biblical derivation. It was a book for the age by a counselor of statesmen and a theologian. He, if any one, could meet the demands of the youthful nation for an epic of its own. Moreover, a note of progress might be discerned from one to the other of the three epics, and a humanistic element could be found in the "Conquest" which was not in the "Iliad" or in "Paradise Lost." Even the oratory of the Argive leaders or that of Satan himself is at least recalled by Caleb's address to the assembled host.

Our great and greater grandfathers revelled in this and were not ashamed to liken it to the Homer of Pope and to the verse of Milton. The anticlimax was reached when Joel Barlow wrote his "Vision of Columbus," afterward developed into the "Columbiad." The very title was sublimated American, and the poem was regarded as a "tremendous epic" in its day. With mitigated modesty the writer declares that he shall not try to prove that he has written an epic poem. Nevertheless he ranks the "Iliad" and the "Æneid" in the same class with his own "Columbiad," which he sends forth "with no other concern than what arises from the most pure and ardent desire of doing good to the country."

Barlow was a type of the cultivated and patriotic young American of his day. He belonged to the Dwight-Trumbull knot of young men in college who were the first to break away from the traditions of the elders and devote themselves to a study of outlander literature in the English classics. In vacations he shouldered a musket and fought bravely with the Massachusetts militia in the opening battles of the Revolution. His commencement part in 1778 was a poem on "The Prospect of Peace," hopeful, enthusiastic, expansive, prophetic.

As there was a shortage of chaplains in the army, the young law student crammed himself with enough divinity in six weeks for war purposes and with his friend Dwight went in and out among the troops, animating and encouraging them by patriotic addresses and odes. Turning editor—doctor of Watts' version of the psalms to make them fit the regnant theology—he meditated and composed by turns the "Vision," which was received with applause by friends and reprinted in London and Paris. It anticipated by a year the one-sided philanthropy and erratic enthusiasm of the French revolution, and in consequence the author was welcome when he arrived in France to give his "Advice to Privileged Orders" and follow it with his poem on the "Conspiracy of Kings."

The design of Barlow's masterpiece, "The Columbiad," evolved from "The Vision," was to give a historical view of events from the time of Columbus to that of Washington as foreseen by the great discoverer from his prison. Conducted by Hesper to the mount of vision, he takes a long lesson in American geography and the history of Mexico and Peru. The story of colonization by Raleigh and others follows, preparing the way for the old French and the Revolutionary wars. Officers in the latter are thus signaled:

Here stood stern Putnam, scored with ancient scars,
The living record of his country's wars;
Wayne, like a moving tower, assumes his post,
Fires the whole field and is himself a host.
Bland, Moyland, Sheldon, the long lines enforce
With light arm'd scouts, with solid squares of horse,
And Knox from his full park to battle brings
His brazen tubes, the last resort of kings,
When at his word the carbon cloud shall rise
And well aimed-thunders rock the shores and skies.

It was in this post revolution period that the first intimation of a submerged dramatic tendency bubbled up to the surface from the ooze where it was sunk 150 years before. Puritan laws and frowns had kept it out of sight and hearing thus far. Hospitable Virginia had allowed the "Merchant of Venice" to be acted by professionals in Williamsburg as early as 1752, and Farquhar's "Beaux' Stratagem" was played the same year in the first American theater at Annapolis, Md., which was followed by the second in New York the next year and another in Philadelphia six years later. But in Massachusetts previous to 1792 plays appeared on the stage at the risk of arrest. Only in unorthodox Rhode Island and under the patronage of planters who came to Newport were they safe within the bounds of New England. As early as 1765 Thomas Godfrey of Philadelphia had peeped in a closet drama entitled "The Prince of Parthia," but Royall Tyler of New York was the first domestic playwright to put a piece upon the stage. He called it the "Contrast," possibly with reference to the change in public sentiment since Massachusetts enacted an ordinance, in imitation of Cromwell's parliament in 1642, abolishing theaters. This act was annulled in England 14 years later, but here there was no relenting until 170 years after the pilgrims came to Plymouth. Under such regime not much could be expected of American dramatic talent. When at length it dared to appear on the boards, it seemed not to the manner born. The tragedy was high enough and the comedy low enough, but the Elizabethan dramatist or even the restoration playwright had not accompanied the star of empire westward. Have they yet arrived?

Still there were homemade plays which pleased provincials by their local color and hits, and as good a beginning was made as could be expected in a climate which ranged from temperate to frigid in the matter of dramatics. What need was there of tragedy representation when the genuine article could be had by standing in front of the meeting house near the whipping post, stocks and pillory or by climbing the hill where the gallows loomed stark against a wintry sky? And as for comedy, it might be had whenever a pirate crew was brought ashore or a knot of witches convicted. The Puritan

NEW COAL COMBINE.

Reported a Company Is to Be Formed to Acquire Fifteen Mines in Ohio.

CAPITAL TO BE $15,000,000.

Morgan Syndicate Back of It—Mining Properties in Hocking and Sandy Creek Valleys, Except Those Under Pittsburg Combine Control.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19.—Reports are current in local coal and railroad circles of the organization of a new coal company by the Morgan syndicate to acquire 15 independent coal mines on the Hocking Valley and Ohio Central railroads. The new company, it is said, is to be known as the Continental Coal company, and the capitalization will be $15,000,000. The new combine will include all the mining properties in the Hocking and Sandy Creek valleys, with the exception of the new Pittsburg and Glendale mines, which have been acquired by the Pittsburg coal combine. There is a probability that the larger mines on the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking railroad may also be included in the deal.

According to a local operator the action of the Morgan syndicate is forced by the Pittsburg combine's invasion of the Hocking Valley field. Options were secured on many of the Hocking mines by the Morgan syndicate some time ago, but were allowed to lapse. The Pittsburg combine's purchases have been made since that time. It is said that all the Morgan syndicate's coal properties will be merged with the independent mines under the Continental company and that they will all be under one management, thus greatly reducing the expense of operation.

boy was not without his diversions. For awhile he had no need of theater or circus. When, however, his primitive entertainments went out of fashion, it was unfair to expect counterfeits to take their place all at once or to be satisfactory. Had not everything fictitious been sternly forbidden and painfully discouraged? Accordingly the early American drama should not be scrutinized too sharply.

Tyler, Dunlap and Payne made the best beginning they could with such plays as "May Day in New York," "The Father of an Only Child," "Bretus" and "Therese," all of which were appreciated at home and some in London. Dunlap's interlude of "Danby's Return" drew unusual laughter from the grave Washington, and sympathetic merriment from all who were waiting to see how he would take an allusion to himself. But no one unearthed these old provincial tragedies and comedies for present reading, and a company which should venture to reproduce them would not undertake their reputation a second night.

RESTRICTIVE INFLUENCE LIFTED

From Trading, Tuesday — Volume Only About Half Million Shares.

New York, Feb. 19.—The restrictive influence upon trading of Monday's storm was lifted Tuesday, yet the volume of trading was only about half a million shares. There was some show of strength during the morning hours, but it dwindled during the day and the market generally turned downward. Some stocks which had the advantage of early advances did not suffer materially on the day, but the general level of prices at the end was lower than Tuesday. The disinclination to trade in the stocks of the great railroad systems, especially those of the transcontinental group, was very marked. It might have been due to the efforts making for a revision of transcontinental freight rates, or it might be explained by the growing inclination to await next Monday's session of the supreme court and a possible decision in the Northern Securities case before venturing upon speculative commitments in this group of stocks, which have so much at stake in the decision of that case. Speculative opinion is in a perplexed state as to the merits of the Metropolitan Street Railway plan. The machinery of the plan is so complicated and the bearings of its operation so obscure that little can be made of it, and the general public is inclined to look askance at the securities involved. The interests of insiders in supporting the price of the stock pending the completion of the plan is obvious, but the price ran off more than a point in the late deal.

It's the Evidence of E. Liverpool People Published in East Liverpool Papers That Has Made Such a Reputation For Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments, is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known. It is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of nerve force. Mrs. C. L. Yager, of No. 152 Broadway, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines are all good. I got them at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, as I was nervous, run down, felt miserable and the heart action was weak and irregular. The medicine made me strong and my nerves steady, the heart action strong and altogether a different person, as I feel well and hearty again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Both Were Hard Looking and Were Ordered to Vamoose—One Plain Drunk.

Three victims appeared before the mayor this morning, two of which were the hardest looking individuals that have been in police court for months. One of them, William Keefe, a hobo, who hails from Altoona, Pa., walked with a cane and had scarcely enough clothing about his body to make a good patch.

Keefe was arrested yesterday at the C. & P. depot by Officer Aufdeheide. He was drunk and lounging in the seats and was taken to the jail in the patrol. A search of his pockets revealed but 35 cents. Owing to his crippled condition he was discharged on his promise to leave the city.

Henry Hardig, an itinerant German, was arrested last night by Patrolman Woods in the Buckeye pottery, where he was sleeping off a powerful jag. He was conveyed to jail in the patrol and when arraigned before the mayor this morning was covered with dirt and his hat missing. He had no money and after being furnished with a boy's that that fitted him much "too soon," was ordered to leave town.

Officers Dawson and Stafford arrested Vince Conkle yesterday afternoon on Broadway. He was drunk all over and was hauled to the bastille. He paid $5.60 this morning.

Dickens' Finances.

Dickens did not begin to save money until he was nearly forty, and throughout life he suffered acutely and incessantly from pecuniary worries and anxieties. He was never short of ready money after his great crisis of 1844, but he was never easy about the future until after his enormously profitable second American trip in the winter of 1867-68.
